*VOTER'S SIMILAR NAME AFFIDAVIT: If it is determined that the reason on the form of identification provided under § 63.010 is substantially similar per § 63.001(c), by initialing the square labeled "Similar Name Affidavit," I swear or affirm I am the person on the list of registered voters or the person on the voter registration certificate, and I am one and the same as the person named on the identification provided. FOR EARLY VOTING ONLY: If a voter's name is not on the list of registered voters, the voter or the voter's authorized representative must provide an ID that is substantially similar pursuant to § 63.001(c) to cast a provisional ballot. Failure to provide such an ID shall not affect the voter's ability to cast a provisional ballot. Intentional false information in voter registration is a felony. Section 37.10, Penal Code. Section 63.011, Texas Election Code, provides that a person who is registered to vote in the county may execute an affidavit stating that the person is the person named in the voter registration certificate, that the person is a resident of the precinct in which the person is registered to vote at the time of the election, and that the person has not voted in the election.

*NOTICE TO VOTER NOT ON LIST: To be eligible to vote a provisional ballot, a voter must be a resident of the precinct in which he is offering to vote, and must be registered to vote in the county. (a) Voter must be a resident of the precinct in which he is offering to vote at the time he submits a provisional ballot. (b) Voter must be a resident of the precinct in which he is registered to vote at the time the information on his residence affidavit was last provided to the voter registrar. (c) Voter must be registered to vote in the county. (d) Voter must be a resident of the county in which he is offering to vote at the time he submits a provisional ballot. (e) Voter must be a resident of the county in which he is registered to vote at the time the information on his residence affidavit was last provided to the voter registrar. (f) Voter may vote only once in the election. False information in voter registration is a felony. Section 37.10, Penal Code. Section 63.011, Texas Election Code, provides that a person who is registered to vote in the county may execute an affidavit stating that the person is the person named in the voter registration certificate, that the person is a resident of the precinct in which the person is registered to vote at the time of the election, and that the person has not voted in the election.
