For the week of October 7-10, 2019 I choose Porter Overbaugh for my Panther. I love that he is always ready to put his best foot forward and work hard to get the job done. Although some of what we do in class does come easy to him, there are times where he has to put in extra effort. So far he has never shied away from correcting his mistakes or from trying to learn from them so he can do better next time. He is often a class mediator when disputes arise and is more often than not reminding wayward students to get back to work. Life on his parents' farm has given him a stellar work ethic and I am so proud to have him in my class this year!

Kyla Lively

Kyla is the Panther on Parade from 5th grade for this week! Kyla is very good friend that treats her friends with kindness and respect at all times. She is also a is a very hard worker that tries her best at all times. This last week, Kyla proved she is a hard worker by memorizing where all 50 states were on a blank map; but she didn't stop there. Kyla even spelled 46 of the states correctly. Incredible work and effort Kyla! Way to study!

Kyler Waldecker

October 14

Kyler is the panther on parade this week because of his calm work ethic. He had a dentist appointment one day and he missed math. He took it home and completed it with no complaints. Another day his math paper just disappeared. We looked everywhere. He accepted the paper I had started as an example and again got caught up . He is a positive role model and I appreciate his hard work.

Thanks Kyler ! Keep it up. Love, Ms. May

Jordan Washburn
10-14-19

Jordan Washburn is this week's "Panther on Parade" because she is working extra hard in math by doing extra math at home. She is going "above and beyond" the regular math curriculum and is working on more challenging math every evening with her dad. Jordan has an AWESOME attitude about doing extra math at home and is excited to show me her work.

Blake Furniss

October 14, 2019

"Our Shining Panther for the week is Blake. Blake is a role model for being so polite with not only the adults in the building, but to his peers as well. He patiently waits to speak if someone is talking and he always uses 'please' and 'thank you'. Thank you for being so kind, Blake!"

Reed Hill

October 14, 2019

Reed is enthusiastic about learning and always has such a positive attitude at school. He eagerly participates in every lesson and activity, always putting forth his best effort. It is so fun to see his face light up when he is learning something new or to hear him say, "Oh yes! It's time for math! I love math!" His excitement is contagious! ☺

Micaiah

October 14, 2019

"Micaiah is our Panther on Parade for doing an amazing job mastering all of our classroom routines. I am especially impressed with how she does a freeze. No matter how much fun she is having or who she is talking with, when the lights go off her hands go straight to her head and her voice is off so she is ready for instructions. She has also mastered our writing routines. We say a little poem each time to get us ready to write. Micaiah always says it with us and sits up straight with her feet on the floor to do her best writing. When she is finished she always remembers to put her pencil back into the cup. Micaiah I am so proud of you for learning how things work in our classroom! You are doing an awesome job and are a role model to your friends!"
