“Student Spotlight”

Yaseen Williams

8th Grade Scholar
Photographer
Honor Student

Yaseen Williams is a 13 year old gifted, determined, intelligent and motivated young man. He first picked up his grandmother's camera at 11 years old and never looked back. He is a self-taught photographer. At 12 years old, Yaseen began his photography business. His website is lookzlegendary.com. He has specialized in nature photography, business and product photography. He has experience also in photographing birthday parties, family portraits and many outdoor events. He recently sold his prints as a vendor at the Gloucester County NAACP 1st Annual Juneteenth Celebration on June 20, 2020 in Sewell, NJ. His ideal job would be a travel photographer for National Geographic, because he would be paid to travel and take photos. With all of his interests and accomplishments, Yaseen was still able maintain straight A's in all of his classes all four marking periods last year. Excellent job!
