Chairman Rosencranse called for Board Reports.

Jenni Rosencranse spoke about the retreat held with the Board and the administrators with Dr. Joel and read the resulting strategic priorities for 2019/2020:

- By May 1, 2020, the Trustees and Administrative team will identify the critical elements of learning necessary for a Park 6, twenty-first century graduate to succeed in their chosen pathway (i.e. college, military, vocational tech., career/work)
- All students will strengthen their knowledge, skills, and habits of mind to be prepared for the next level as demonstrated by performance on a variety of assessments.
- By March 1, 2020 the District will develop a strategic communication plan to effectively serve all stakeholders.

Mrs. Bell asked about adopting the strategic priorities, stating that it's important that this isn't seen as just the board's work, but administration also. After some discussion, Chair Rosencranse and Mr. Schulte agreed to draft a letter after the August 6th retreat to share at the August 20, 2019 board meeting.

Mr. Bell shared that the evaluation committee had met yesterday and plans to meet with Mr. Schulte next week.

Chairman Rosencranse called for the Superintendent's Report.

Mr. Schulte reminded trustees that it's time to advertise for new volunteers to serve on the KEC committee for 2019/2020. Letters will be sent to the current members and an ad will appear in the back-to-school edition of the Cody Enterprise as well as the district website. He directed trustees to the assessment calendar that was shared and also stated he would be sharing Prevention Needs Assessment data for grades 6-8, 10 and 12 at the regular Board meeting in August. The State Board of Education has been reviewing school leader evaluation models and there has been some question whether the district's McREL system meets the newly adopted state standards. Mr. Schulte will attend the State Board of Education meeting July 18 to present Park 6's evaluation system.

Trustee Roes thanked the board and administration for the time they all spend working together with Dr. Joel and she looks forward to meeting and working together again.

Chairman Rosencranse called for Visitor Comments.

Harold Musser spoke about the possible conflict in him possibly conducting the auction for Beacon Hill property and the possibility of purchasing the property. He stated he would recuse himself from bidding adding that he feels he could get the most money for the district's property.

There being no further regular business to come before the board, the board took a 20-minute recess until the required 8:00 p.m. budget hearing.

The meeting resumed and the public hearing on the budget opened at 8:00 p.m.

Mrs. Solberg reviewed the $43,153,693 FY2019/2020 budget consisting of general fund, special revenue fund, capital construction fund, depreciation reserve fund, food service fund and cash reserves and shared the budget appropriations and levy resolution.
