A motion was offered by Mari Myren, seconded by Nicole Green and carried to unanimously approve the November 24, 2020 school board meeting agenda.

Roni Dauer, CER Director, reported on current CER programming and was proud to remind board members that Fairmont CER has been providing recreational and educational opportunities for children and adults of all ages for 49 years! She indicated that many of the programs CER offers are made available through partnerships with local organizations. COVID has made programming far more difficult, but several classes have been offered virtually and with good success. Ms. Dauer thanked those program facilitators for their innovative efforts. Special thanks was given to members of the CER Advisory Council, including board member Mari Myren and student board members Briana Joseph and Morgan Hoong. Ms. Dauer also commended CER's facility scheduler, Kris Seifert for her fine work in so many areas, especially in maintaining the community calendar and publishing the CER newsletter. In closing, Ms. Dauer thanked the Board for their many years of support for CER and for providing her the opportunity to serve as the CER Director for the past 15 years and to be a member of the CER team for the past 46 years. Board members thanked Ms. Dauer for her the many contributions she's made to ensure the success of the CER in Fairmont.
