Spiro Homecoming

October 13th was a good night for homecoming festivities. The skies cooperated with just the slightest breeze. Mrs. Jordan Jones and the Student Senate did a fantastic job on decorations as shown by the beautiful float framed by sheer curtains and vases of metallic star balloons. Thank you for your hard work.

Short Hair or Long Hair; What is in This Fall?

By: Brooke Beason

Trends come and go, but some trends are a little more permanent than some shoes that you can just take off and switch out. Every girl knows the feeling where you just are like "UGHHH I just want to cut all my hair off." So you just go in and cut it all off and you love love love it, then three days later you just want it to grow back a foot over night. I took a poll with a few classes and here are the results to the question "short hair or long hair; what's in this fall?"

Long hair -22

Short hair- 9

Long hair came out on top by a pretty big number, so we can conclude that long hair is definitely this fall! Whether you are rocking short hair or long hair, as long as YOU like it and feel confident, then who cares what people think? Even coach Dustin Gist says "no hair is in for me!" so whatever you have, just own it and make it all yours!

The Win Against Panama!

By: Brooke Beason

Going into the football game against Panama, we had only won two games, and Panama had won all of their games except one. So if you look at just the statistics, you wouldn't think that we had any chance of winning, but our guys were ready for them. They didn't worry about what people were saying, or about anything except for going out there and playing their absolute best. And that is exactly what they did. Our football boys went out onto the field on senior night, the last time to play on the Spiro football field, and they played their hearts out. We ended up winning 56-20, so our guys went hog hunting, and came out with a big time win.

Holes

By: Sierra Perdue

Does looking at the picture below freak you out? If you answered yes, you may have trypophobia. Trypophobia is the fear of irregular patterns or a cluster of small holes or bumps. If some people see a honeycomb or maybe an edited picture of a hand with holes in it, they may have a mini freak out. We asked a few people if they felt uncomfortable when we showed them a picture of a hand with holes in it.

Brooke Beason said yes

Saylor Clark said yes

Jaden Brown said no, but it was nasty

Jaden Jones said it gives her goosebumps

Sydnee Haynes said it grosses her out

Mrs. Lovell said it makes her feel very uncomfortable

Hallie Harper said yes, it sends a rush of chills through her body

Antonio Johnson made a super weird body movement

Cameryn Callahan said no

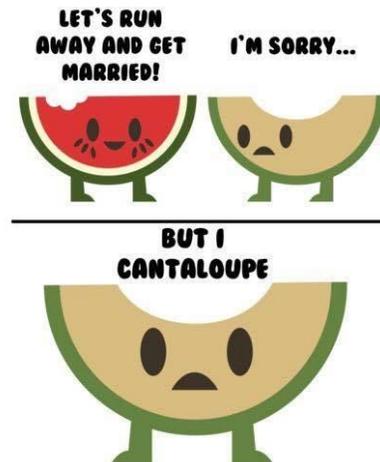

Snapchat Streaks

By: Saylor Clark

What even is a Snapchat streak? Well it's when two snap users send direct snaps back and forth to each other for several days. The longer they do this the higher the streak number will be. "To be honest I didn't have a clue what a Snapchat streak was, I thought it was just a Snapchat emoji" says an anonymous lady. She isn't completely wrong about the emoji thing, but she was on the right track. Many teens see a Snapchat streak as a chore or an obligation, because they send streaks before school and after school and before going to bed. So how many streaks are too much? "I wouldn't say that I have too many because they're all people I talk to but I have like 86 snap streaks" states Stormie Eastman. That's a lot of responsibility... don't you think?

The most devastating thing to happen to a streak that was really long would be if you lost that streak. Tatyona McFerren comments, "if I lost my 378 days streak, I would be upset because it took a long time to get it, but we would just start a new one and make it twice as far than the first time." In my opinion it's like losing a friend if you lose that snap-streak.

Christian Music

By: Sydnee Haynes

When I listen to Christian music, it puts me in a good mood. It gives me hope and makes me realize I am never in this walk through life alone. There is something about the song "I Held On" that gives me hope. The song talks about holding on until the storm is over, and I can't stress enough how important it is to hold on! You never know when your storm is almost over and if you will just hold on you can make it through! Christian music preaches through its songs and lifts up your spirit about real life situations and about how the Lord will walk you through them.

School Spirit

By: Brooke Beason

*"I got spirit... yes I do,
I got spirit ...how
'bout you?"*

Everyone knows this chant, and has probably shouted it out at a pep-rally a time or two. But do you really have school spirit? You don't have to be the captain of the football team, a starter on the basketball team, or the best drummer in band to have school spirit. School spirit is more than just wearing a Spiro shirt, or coming to the football game. It is yelling at the pep-rally, it's standing for the national anthem, and it is showing that you are proud to be a bulldog every day.

BPA

By: Jaden Jones

BPA is always finding ways to help needy kids and making sure they have presents for Christmas and making them feel loved. This past week, BPA had their powderpuff game this week and all the proceeds went to buying Christmas presents for special needs children. This Christmas season and every season before this, BPA goes to Walmart and buy all kinds of toys for the Angel Tree kids.

School

By: Sydnee Haynes

When most students think of school, they don't have many happy thoughts. As a senior, I have come to realize that school is what you make it. You don't necessarily get the option to come or not, so since you have to be here, why not make the most of it? I'm guilty of coming to school and having an attitude. We all are. But someone once told me "you're in control of your attitude." This statement is very true. You are in control of how you act and approach things. So the next time you wake up and you have an attitude, change it. This way you'll be able to have fun memories and exciting experiences at school instead of the same old "school is so boring" attitude.

Should Dogs Be Able to Come to School?

By: Madison LeFlore

I think dogs should be able to go to school. One... they are cute and two... come on, it's dogs. Who doesn't love dogs? I think it would be so cool to be able to bring your dog to school. It could be like show and tell, but with dogs and it would be every day. I think it would be a good way to see your dog for the whole day. You wouldn't have to wait all day to see them again.

One of the bad things about taking your dog to school, is that someone could be allergic to them and that would not be fun for them. Another thing that would be bad, is if your dog felt uncomfortable around a lot of people.

Some might say that dogs do and don't belong in the class and what you think might be true. There are a lot of good and bad things about taking your dog to school. Even though you can't bring them to school, at least you can see them after school. Your dog is always there for you, school can stay being a no place for dogs but one day hopefully that will change. Forever...a dog lover.

Student Senate

Student senate had a busy week on the week during homecoming! They met a couple of times at lunch and had a pizza party. (yum!) They brainstormed and came up with our super fun, cool dress up days for spirit week, and they spent all day on Friday making the homecoming float look super amazing!

Best Friend

By: Sydnee Haynes

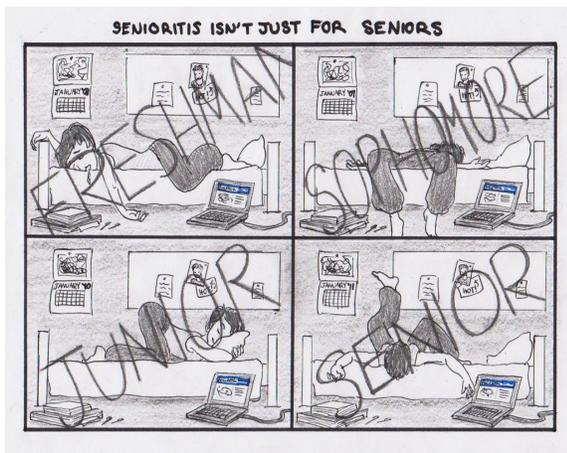

Do you ever look at people older than you and get happy when you realize their best friend in high school is still their best friend now? For instance my dad and James West have been best friends since high school, and are still best friends to this day. They have raised their families around each other and they have shown what it's like to stick together even when times get tough. When I get older, I hope to have the same bond as my dad and James with my best friend Remi and that we will always stick together.

Senior Year

By: Jaden Jones

Many people believe that senioritis is just for seniors, but I started freshman year. I started thinking that senior year would never come, and when people would tell me that it would go by in a blink of an eye, I never believed them. Being a senior now and looking back, I realize they didn't lie. I remember sitting in Mrs. Lovell's room and not being used to the super small hallways and always getting pushed and shoved into the lockers. Now that senior year is here, I can't wrap my head around the fact that this is my last year being with the same people I've been with since 5th grade. If you are a freshman and you're reading this get involved in every activity possible and enjoy while you can, because before you know it will all be over.

Fears

By: Sierra Perdue

I asked people what their biggest fear was. Here are their answers and why.

Hallie Harper said bridges, because she is afraid they will fall.

Bradlee Chronister said clowns, because he has seen too many scary movies.

Cameryn Callahan said midgets, because it is not normal.

Antonio Johnson said dying alone, he said he doesn't know why.

Cedric Cobb said heights, because you could fall very easily.

Mrs. Maynard said dying, because she doesn't wanna leave her two kids.

Malory Moore said getting kidnapped, because that is just scary in general.

Seth Rinke said scooters, because they hurt when they hit your ankles.

Hannah T said grasshoppers, because she has just always been afraid of them.

Smile

By: Sydnee Haynes

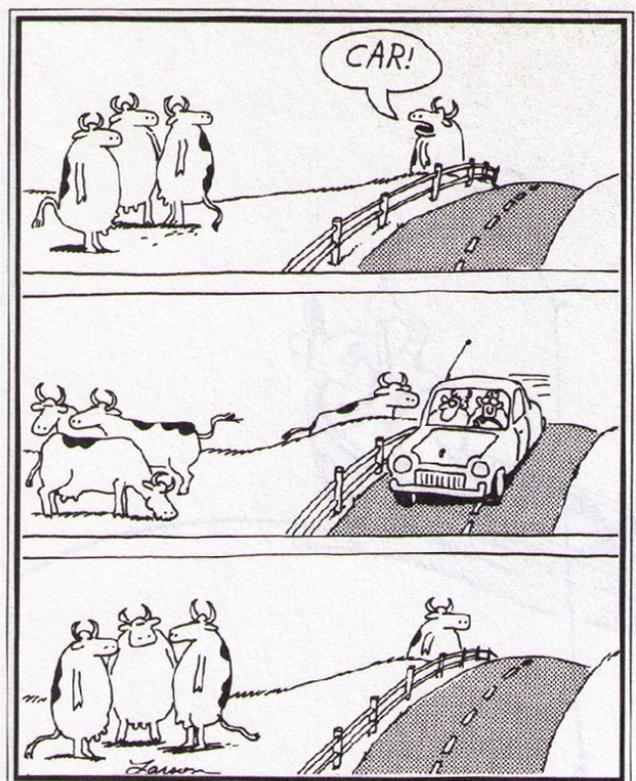

Smile! Your smile could impact someone's day in a positive way! You don't ever know when someone is having a bad day and just needs your smile to let them know everything will be alright. Your smile can tell a story, it can speak to people so next time you walk by someone smile and see if it not only affects their life but makes your better too!

Community Poll: Books or Movies?

By: Hailey Mendoza

Jaden Jones: Movies- Because I can get into a movie more.

Brooklyn Gist: Books- They're more detailed

Saylor Clark: Both- Something the movie is better than the book, but the book is more detailed.

Thomas Hughes: Books- The books are way better because movies lack commitment and detail.

Patricia Pierce: Books- you get so many details that are missing from the movie while you are reading you get so invoked in the moment you feel like you're there and a part of it.

Angela Woodral: Books- You sorta feel like you become the character, you get to escape from reality for a bit.

6 Tips on Writing an Essay that Will Set You Apart From Others

By: Hailey Mendoza

- 1 Find an important life changing event. Something you've done or something that's happened to you that's changed you for the better.
- 2 Show instead of telling.
- 3 Use your own voice, don't rely too heavily on other's opinions of who you are.
- 4 Your essay is what gives life to your applications, so don't rush it.
- 5 Proofread! Have someone else proofread it as well!
- 6 Follow some basic essay body structures. Thesis statement, Introduction, Body and Conclusion.

Taco Bell Vs McDonald's

By Madison LeFlore

If you had to choose between Taco Bell and McDonald's, which one would you choose and why? For me, it would have to be Taco Bell. Why because one it's amazing and two it's really good. I asked five other people, which one they would pick and why. These are the answers I got.

Mrs. Jones says McDonald's. "They have the best diet Dr. Pepper around, and you can't beat their fries."

Mrs. Lovell says Taco Bell. "It tastes like it's made with love."

Thomas Hughes says Taco Bell. "It has more choices and it doesn't taste cheap."

Sierra Mahar says both. "You can't beat McDonalds fries and you can't beat Taco Bell's soft tacos."

Pablo Huarez says. "Mickey D's because of the Double Quarter Pounder and the chicken nuggets." P.S. Geno's is good. (Seth)

Stereotypes

By: S.M

Stereotype- A widely held but fixed and oversimplified image or idea of a particular type of person or thing.

Although some stereotypes may seem harmless to you, the damage of seeing an individual as representing a group are extensive. Stereotyping is not only unkind, it's also plain wrong in general.

One disadvantage of stereotyping is that it makes us ignore differences between people. Therefore, we think things about people that might not be true and make assumptions. One advantage of stereotyping is that it enables us respond quickly to situations because the situation we will be put in we will probably have a similar experience that we had already went through.

Softball

By: Jayden Potter

Senior softball players-- How did your last season end up? Did it end the way you would've liked? What would you have changed about it?

Sydnee Haynes - Our season ended earlier than we would have liked for it to. Errors caught up with us, and we just didn't play to the best of our abilities. No, it didn't end the way we would have liked, but we had a good run. We grew together as a team, and we always had each other's backs. Honestly, I don't think I would change anything other than that we would have won state! All that being said, it's Columbus, it's history.

Keelie Glory - I'm really glad I moved to finish my last softball season here. I wish it would've lasted a little longer, but I wouldn't change a thing about this season. I gained lots of friendships that will be there forever.

Hallie Harper- Our season did not end the way we wanted it to, but all in all my senior year was memorable and unforgettable. If I could go back and change anything it would be the weather and umpires.

Sierra Perdue- Our season definitely did not end the way we wanted it to, or honestly, the way we expected it to. There is nothing that I would have changed about this season or any games. We all made mistakes, but we learned from them. This season was one of the "funnest" and most memorable seasons that I have ever had. I am super thankful for the teammates and coaches that I had for my very last season of softball.

Hannah Tobler- I still don't want to talk about it.

Dog vs. Cats

By: Keelie Glory

Do you like cats or dogs? Dogs are playful and always love their human. Cats love their humans but do not always show it or do not want to show. Cat's lifespan is about 4-5 years. A dog's lifespan is about 10-13 years. Cats can be declawed. Dogs can have their nails trimmed but it's not common for them to have their nails completely removed. All dogs and cats shed but some shed more than others.

Sierra Perdue says, "I like dogs better because cats are disgusting."

Mrs. Jones says, "dogs for sure ...cats kind of freak me out, the way they purr is just weird."

Ashlyn Perry says, "cats... they're not as mean as dogs."

Jayden Potter says, "dogs... they go to the bathroom outside, and cats go in the house."

Heard in the Halls

By: Saylor Clark

These words were heard in the halls at Spiro High School. The names have been removed to protect the innocent...or the guilty...whichever the case may be.

"I was gonna date him but he reminds me of Harry Potter."

"Mrs. Jones you look like a gladiator."

"I apologize for my hairy legs."

"Why do people say hurtful things? ... like go for a run"

"Beep, Beep Alleerrtt"

"I'm so cheesed Yo"

(touches head) "Michael Jordan"

"I went to go to the bathroom but when I did it looked like someone did it for me"

"I'm going to put my finger in your mouth and then I'll pull it out because face paint is just like lipstick"

"Dude I just got played"

"BOO"....."BOO to youuu"

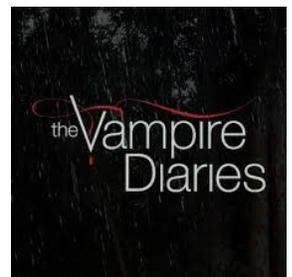

Favorite Series

By: Alexis Harrison

A lot of people spend most of their time watching several different movie series. I love finding a good movie series because there are a lot seasons within it. You can have something to watch for weeks or even months instead of just watching a movie that lasts an hour. Two of my favorite movie series are Gossip Girl and The Vampire Diaries. I like Gossip Girl because it always keeps me guessing. There are so many things that happen in one episode. I like The Vampire Diaries because of the storyline, and I have an obsession with Damon and Stefan in the movie!

I asked a few students what their favorite movie series are and why, and here are their responses. Sierra Perdue says, "One Tree Hill because I know all of the music on it, and I resemble the character Peyton. I like Grey's Anatomy because it is just so exciting and you never see what's coming next. American Horror Story is another one I like because I love scary stuff and AHS is so suspenseful." Jaden Jones says, "Riverdale because it leaves you hanging wanting to watch more and more." Hailey Mendoza says, "American Horror Story and Catfish because I do not have a life."

Sometimes I find myself watching movies way too often. Most of the time I go home from school and immediately start watching movies. Whenever a series is over it is very depressing. Even after the series ends I still want to know more about the show. People begin watching a movie series because they are entertaining and take up a lot of time if they do not have anything else to do. So if you want to have something to do whenever you are bored, find a good movie series and you will have something to do for weeks or even months at a time.

Yearbook

By: Saylor Clark and Alexis Harrison

Many people don't think yearbook is a really a big thing, but it is indeed. I mean what type of people do you know who get up at the crack of dawn and get their brain working, like being creative and ready to take a picture? I don't know about you, but my brain doesn't always work so early in the morning, and this is coming from a yearbook staffer herself. It takes a lot of time and effort that some people just don't appreciate.

A simple picture can pull a whole layout together. Going behind the scenes to see what the yearbook staffers do in order to make a yearbook perfect was a bit crazy. They have deadlines after deadlines and pictures on top of pictures. How do they choose which pictures are the best to put in the yearbook? Mrs. Maynard says, "The best pictures are the ones that you feel you are there with that person."

It looks like there is so much more than just sitting behind a camera and taking pictures of people. They capture the right moments. That right moment becomes a memory, and a memory in a book is the best thing to have 10 years from now. They take like 300 pictures just to get one picture and that's okay because that one picture probably shows a lot about our school and how it has influenced us in some type of way, shape, or form. That's what is so important about yearbook.

Why are Grades Important

By: Micah Thompson

Grades are most important to me because I always want to be eligible, and I want to graduate high school. In fact, combined with a challenging course load, grades are a pretty important factor for college admission. I asked students why they think grades were important.

Carson Cotie- For college

Katy Ritter-They're not because grades do not prove how intelligent you are

Dalton Moody- They are important for a good future.

Doneisha Goodson-They are because you can go to college and get a good degree

Alana Loaiza- To get in college and I want a family so I need money to support them

Destiney Walker-Grades are important to me because I want a chance to get out of Oklahoma/Arkansas and go to college in New York and major in photography.
