What does Meme/Vine Day Mean?

Many students and teachers are asking how to dress for Meme/Vine day. Find a meme or vine to copy and have a photo of it available during counting.

Here are some examples:

Harvard Hornet Soccer

Harvard vs Woodstock

By Maria Mercado

Many people looked forward to watching Harvard beat Woodstock. The first game was home on September 20, 2018; the scored ended up being 4-2 putting Harvard in first place in the conference. On September 29, 2018, the Hornets were away at Woodstock. Harvard would have to win in order to stay in first in their conference. The score ended up being 5-3. It was a very competitive game but our Harvard Hornets came home with two wins.

Streak Breakers

By Haley Tittle

Things are turning around for Hornet Athletics this year as we are no longer on a losing streak. Friday, Sept. 21, Harvard's football team won their first game for the season beating Rockford Christian 13-12, ending their three year losing streak. The football team also had another victory on Sept. 28th defeating Woodstock 21-14 making that the second win of the season. The girls varsity golf team placed 2nd in the Kishwaukee River Conference Tournament Sept. 25th shooting a school record of 396! Harvard's varsity volleyball team also had a few victories placing 4th at their home tournament Sept.22nd. Recently, cross country earned 5 medals on a Saturday morning meet at Winnebago. And the boys varsity soccer team is on a winning streak and is currently first in the conference! Go Hornets!

"A Long Time Coming"

By: Andrew Cooke and Janie Montemayor

The Hornet football team played Rockford Christian on 8/21 and came out with a win of 13-12. We got some quotes from head coach Saylor, as well as coach Youngren to see how this win felt and how it was attained. Coach Saylor described this win as feeling great, stating, "It was very emotional for the players who put so much time in the last couple of years." When asking Saylor what he thinks is responsible for this win and the now broken losing streak, he said, "Hard work, dedication, and sticking to it!" When asking Coach Youngren, what type of emotions he felt after that win, Youngren stated, "We knew it was a long time coming, but we definitely earned it. [Winning] is the culture we're trying to build here."

This winning attitude must be paying off. The Hornets beat the Woodstock Blue Streaks with a score of 21-14 this past Friday. Couch Youngren believes that the Hornets can "go toe-to-toe with anyone that they play." Come out and support the Hornets at their next game, away against BC this upcoming Friday. Don't forget you can also tune into 101.3 WHIW Harvard Community Radio to see how the boys are doing!

Spirit Yell

Hornets! Yeah!
Stand up and cheer, let 'em know you're here!
Hornets! Hornets! Go! Go! Go!

Homecoming Advice

- Don't be afraid to yell loudly during chants or dress up. It's nothing to be embarrassed about, it's school spirit!
- Use items from home to incorporate into dress up days to avoid spending money at stores.
- You're never too cool to participate
- During homecoming week, you are able to wear hats and use face paint, but no form of masks are acceptable.

Marching Band

Harvard High School's marching band is becoming known for dancing! Since they have had a song in the routine that requires band members dancing for about five years, other bands in the county are referring to them as the marching band who dances on the field.

The band will perform in Columbus Day parade in Chicago on October 8th. They will perform for senior night in Dan Horne field on October 12th.

AFS Corner : Find us in hall way!

By Napattra "Pam" Jirachotekamjorn
This year, Harvard High School has welcomed 3 AFS exchange students from around the world. You should take time and find new faces when you walk in hall way. They're Aleyna from Germany, Luka from Bosnia & Herzegovina, and Pam from Thailand. Feel free to talk to us!

This homecoming is going to be our first American homecoming. "For me, homecoming is a school party to dance and have fun with friends. I feel excited for this, and look forward to meme day, lip sync battle, and powderpuff," said Aleyna.

Special thanks to Mrs. Eisele and Mr. Guy Clark for their help guiding us through Lucidpress.
