Parent and Student Opt-Out Form for Publishing of Student Work or Images

Mount Morris Central School appreciates being able to showcase the exemplary students in the district by highlighting student work and accomplishments. The district does this by publishing work and photographs and/or video recordings of students on the district website and in various publications, including newsletters, articles, yearbooks, brochures, instructional materials and promotional materials as well as on social media including Facebook and Twitter. Any such photographs or video recordings will depict students engaged in various school activities and will be screened by staff prior to publishing. Mount Morris Central is not responsible for media coverage of events.
