Description

Teachers must be highly organized to plan and deliver lessons and to evaluate student work in a timely manner. Teaching requires a great deal of patience, and teachers must be able to present materials in a variety of ways to accommodate different learning styles. They need to be able to communicate well with students, parents and other teachers.

Various Duties

- ✚ Plan and implement activities to meet the physical, emotional, intellectual and social needs of the students.
- ✚ Develop suitable curricula and effective teaching methods based on assessment of students' needs.

- ✚ Complete documents, make recommendations and participate in Individualized Education Program (IEP) plans for each student.
- ✚ Be familiar with emergency procedures.
- ✚ Prepares, adapts, and delivers instructional material.
- ✚ Help maintain pupil morale and assist in establishment of good school-community relations.
- ✚ Keep parents informed of program expectations, program activities and their child's progress.
- ✚ Participate in public oriented activities related to his/her teaching assignment and building, such as:
 - a. Parent-Teacher meetings and conferences
 - b. Open House
 - c. Public performance of children in plays, concerts, athletic activities, etc.
- ✚ To be available to students before the opening of the pupils' regular school day in the morning and be available in your classroom or building after close of the pupils' regular school day according to negotiated contractual agreement.
- ✚ Assist administration in the implementation of school and board policies.
- ✚ To perform miscellaneous duties from time to time as assigned by the building principal.
