11. GOOD OF THE ORDER

- Joyce asked how the art that was instituted to Parkview Elementary is going and what we're looking at for the next school year. Matt answered that they haven't had that conversation yet and as far as art itself, it is going well, but personalities on the other side we're working around. He stated that one of his favorite things is seeing the art projects being displayed and that they are learning art and being exposed to things they haven't before and feels that is value to the students.
- Jason asked if the teacher who has pulled their child out to homeschool is keeping that child in her classroom with her. Matt will look into.
- Jason asked how the search for the transportation director position is going and Matt stated they will be interviewing one next week.
- Casey asked about the lights at the elementary school and Matt will check into making sure they are working at all times.
