1. Any student attending high school (public, private, or home-school), grades 9-12, in South Dakota, is eligible to participate.
2. Entries in the conservation district contest must be accompanied by attached entry blank.
3. Two winners from each district contest will be eligible to participate in their respective Natural Resource Area contest.
4. Two winners from each of the seven area speech contests will be eligible to compete at the State Speech Contest.
5. District and area elimination contests must be held on or before the dates listed in the schedule of events (see back page). State Contest date is also listed.
6. East River Electric Power Cooperative, Inc. will pay scholarships to any college, university or accredited vocational technical school in the State of South Dakota chosen and attended full-time by the winners. On-line classes will be eligible for scholarships if the post-secondary school verifies that the student is considered to be attending full-time.
7. Scholarships will be held one year after graduation from high school or one year after release from armed forces.
8. Speeches are to be five minutes in length. Each judge will assess a five-point per jury for any speech less than 4 or more than 6 minutes.
9. Speech must be original, although quotes will be permitted; contestant must write his/her own speech.
10. Notes may be used, but any speech read in text will be disqualified.
11. Each speech should incorporate our natural resources – soil, water, animals, plants and air – as applicable to the theme of the speech.
12. Contestants may, but are not required to, introduce themselves. Score is not affected.
13. No person will be admitted or may leave the room while a contestant is speaking.
14. Speaker's time will be kept by two timekeepers using stopwatches. Time is to be announced at the conclusion of each speech.
15. Judges who have knowledge of speaking and/or conservation should be selected. Each judge will be given copies of score sheets, rules and regulations and other pertinent information of the contest.
16. Score sheets will be totaled and winners announced by contest coordinator.
17. Speakers at district, area, and state contest will draw a number, be introduced and speak in order of the number drawn. After the winners have been selected, speakers will be introduced by name, school and the sponsoring conservation district.
18. All contestants in the state contest must submit one legible copy of their speech at the registration table.
19. Five place winners will be selected. Scholarships will be awarded to the top three. In the event that one or more of the top three winners would choose not to attend a college, university or vocational technical school full-time in the state of South Dakota, then the scholarships will be re-awarded to alternate place winner(s).
20. The first place winner in the state contest will not be eligible to participate in future contests. Other place winners can continue to participate in future contests until graduation or winning first place.
21. Contestants will not be allowed to submit a video of his or her speech in lieu of appearing in person at the local, area, or state contest.
22. No alternate date will be set for the State Finals except in the event of adverse weather conditions.
