The high school boys' varsity basketball team was victorious over Glidden-Ralston 63-44 on Friday night in Mondamin. The boys used a huge first quarter to blow open the game and maintained their lead the rest of the contest. Mason King was the leading scorer on Friday night, dropping in 22 points. Koleson Evans scored 17 points while grabbing 16 rebounds and Sage Evans scored 15 points while also securing 16 rebounds. Grant Gilgen scored 3 points while adding 6 rebounds. Rounding out the scoring was Brecken Pavlik, Brady Melby and Riley Harris with 2 points apiece. The Hawkeyes also got good contributions from Walker Rife, Jacob Barry, Nelson Clark and Mason McIntosh in the victory on Friday night. The boys look to keep their momentum as they travel to Woodbine on Tuesday night to take on the rival Tigers.

There will be an FCCLA meeting for ALL members this Wednesday, January 13th during Hawktime.
