

CCSD Acceptable Use Policy for Technology and Internet (Policy IFBG)

Chattahoochee County School District supports the use of computers, the Internet, and other network devices in the instructional program to facilitate learning through interpersonal communications and access to information, research and collaboration. Student possession of personal electronic devices designed to communicate, create or store information is permitted by the district at the discretion of the teacher. Students who choose to connect to the district network agree to the requirements of the Computer/Network Acceptable Use Policy (IFBG) and should consider his/her personal devices subject to the same level of monitoring and access as any district-owned technology device. The district reserves the right to monitor Internet and network use of personal devices on all district networks.

Chattahoochee County School District does not require students to bring their personal devices into school. Those who do bring devices assume all risks of damage, theft, loss or misuse of such devices. The use of personal mobile devices is with the understanding that the student has the permission of his/her parent(s)/guardian(s) to bring the devices onto school property. The district holds no responsibility for damage or loss of personal devices.

Use of personal mobile devices that disrupt the instructional day or include possession, viewing, sending or sharing picture, video, or audio information which has sexual, violent or threatening content on school grounds, school buses or at school events is prohibited and will result in disciplinary action and/or confiscation of the personal device.

The district recognizes that students have the ability to use personal devices to access sites that would otherwise be restricted if they were using district owned equipment or were connected to the district network. The district is not responsible for such content being accessed or posted.
