Updated spectator information for remaining home games:

The Calamus Wheatland School Board approved lifting the spectator limitations on all remaining home basketball games. Anyone may attend a home basketball game with the following requirements being adhered to:

- Masks SHALL be worn at all times by all spectators
- Social distancing SHALL be maintained
- Elementary students SHALL sit with their family group
- Family groups SHALL continue to sit together
- JH/HS students may sit in the student section

Admission: $5 adult/$4 student or with a punch card or family pass.

Please make sure to bring the family pass with you and present this to the ticket taker.

This updated guidance is for Calamus Wheatland home games only. Tri-Rivers Conference rules of "Household plus 4" spectator guidance will apply for the remaining games at those conference schools hosting sites.
