

Jay Schultz:

This is Jay Schultz for WHIW 101.3 FM and it's time for the weekly Harvard Hornet's sports update. The schools of the Kishwaukee River Conference and the Interstate Eight Conference have entered into an agreement to play football with each other starting with the 2021-2022 school year. The agreements will put the schools into two groups with each school playing seven games. Each school will play every school in their group for six games. The seventh game will be against the team in the other group. The hitting Hornets will be in group A with Johnsburg, Marengo, Plano, Richmond-Burton, Rochelle, and Sandwich. Group B will consist of Kaneland, LaSalle-Peru, Morris, Ottawa, Sycamore, Woodstock, and Woodstock North. The agreement is for football only.
