Due Process Rights

(regarding information received as a result of investigations required by 49 CFR 391.23(d) and (e))

You are hereby notified that you have the following rights regarding the investigative information that will be provided to the prospective employer pursuant to 49 CFR 391.23 (d) and (e):

(i)(l)(i) The right to review information provided by previous employers;

(i)(l)(ii) The right to have errors in the information corrected by previous employer and for that previous employer to re-send the corrected information to the prospective employer;

(i)(l)(iii) The right to have a rebuttal statement attached to the alleged erroneous information, if the previous employer and the driver cannot agree on the accuracy of the information.

(i)(2) Drivers who have previous Department of Transportation regulated employment history in the preceding three years, and wish to review previous employer-provided investigative information must submit a written request to the prospective employer, which may be done at any time, including when applying, or as late as 30 days after being employed or being notified of denial of employment. The prospective employer must provide this information to the applicant within five (5) business days of receiving the written request. If the prospective employer has not yet received the requested information from the previous employer(s), then the five-business days deadline will begin when the prospective employer receives the requested safety performance history information. If the driver has not arranged to pick up or receive the requested records within thirty (30) days of the prospective employer making them available, the prospective motor carrier may consider the driver to have waived his/her request to review the records.
