CLASS SONG
(Tune: After The Ball Is Over)

After this day is over,
After we've gone our way,
We will recall the moments
That we have shared today.
Many a heart is searching,
If we could read them all;
We wish their hopes to be granted.
God bless us all.

After this day is over,
After we've gone our way,
May all our hearts be jolly,
May all our dreams come true.
We shall return tomorrow
To meet friends from far and near.
Many a wish will be granted
God bless us all.

CLASS HISTORY AND MEMORIES

On August 28, 1961, forty-one eager Freshmen entered the doors of the Emerson-Hubbard Community School. They were: Margie Adams, Donald Albrecht, Magadelena Alcantor, Alan Binkley, Velda Benton, Ronald Bottger, Maralyn Blair, Janet Denker, Molly Jo Dittman, Richard Dohrman, Gary Dose, Darrell Eriksen, Barbara Fendrick, David Fredericksen, Bonnie Frey, Gil Frey, Thomas Gifford, Dean Habrock, Verdel Habrock, Reta Hingst, Roger Hunn, Candess Jensen, Marilyn Karlberg, Barbara Oetken, David Perkins, Karen Pope, Eugene Rasmussen, Mary Jo Schroeder, Irene Skow, Dennis Stark, Merlyn Steecker, Gene Stolze, Sandra Swanson, Barbara Todd, Bonnie Voss, Marilyn Wallwey, Loren Wallwey, Elinor Winslow, and Janet Zeisler. Magadelena Alcantor and Roger Hunn left us during the year.

Waiting to greet us were the dear ole Seniors. Our day of Freshman Initiation was filled with fun and excitement.

As we began our Sophomore year, Ron White, Charles Stevens, Darrel Belt, Terry Stinger, Gene Blaker, Fred Saunders, Kirk Saunders, and Mike Pallas joined us. David Perkins did not return. During the year we lost Gene Blaker and Charles Stevens.

By this time, we were getting used to the customs of the high school. During this year we took a Sophomore Sneak Day. The day was filled with food, games and excitement.

In our Junior year Bernard Boyle, Claudette Reed, and Jolene Head joined us. Ron White did not return. Claudette Reed and Jolene Head left us during the year.

Our third year was highlighted with the receiving of our class rings, followed by the presentation of our class play, "Paint the Town Pink." We also put on a prom in honor of the Senior class. We carried out the theme of "Evening in Paris."

Our last year started with the addition of Betty O'Neill, Roberta Vaisnez, and Iris Donley to our class. Marilyn Karlberg did not return. During the year, we lost Roberta Vaisnez, Irene Skow, Gary Dose, and Bernard Boyle.

As we enter our final phase of our high school days, we shall always remember the day we initiated the little Freshmen, the day we took our senior pictures, putting on our class play, "Tammy Tell Me True" and the lovely Prom given in honor of us by the Junior Class. Our final days of being seniors were busily spent getting ready for Baccalaureate, Class Night, and our final day that we have long waited for, Graduation Day. All this was made possible by our class sponsors, Mr. McKenzie and Mr. Blecker.

We have reached our one goal but many lie beyond!

CLASS WILL

We the class of 1965, do happily will these following articles to the under-graduates and faculty, in hopes that they will bring them as much grief as they brought us.

I, CANDI JENSEN, hoping she will not turn tail and run, will the editorship of the annual to Janet Frey. I'll give you a tip--keep your staff hopping! I, JUNE KUBIK, will locker 613 to Darlene Schwarz in hopes she can get it open in a hurry. Caution--Watch out for Avalanches. I, KAREN POPE, will my natural blonde hair to Connie Eriksen, it will save you time and money. I, TOM GIFFORD, will my ability to get straight A's to Karen Kellogg who in turn must work hard to keep my good average. I, BONNIE FREY, will my ability not to be late for study hall to Francis Burcham in return he must be on time at least three times a week. I, MARALYN KAY BLAIR, will my ability to be a cupid but never get caught in the "game of love", to my sister Louise. My bow and arrows are in my locker. I, BONNIE VOSS, will my sparkling clear eyes to my sister, Joy. She will need them for the long nights of homework ahead.

I, ELINOR WINSLOW, will my ability to forget every book I check out to anyone who would like to support the library. I, BARB FENDRICK, will my ability not to stay home two Saturday nights in a row to Nancy Swanson. Who in return must keep the boys wondering. I, JUDY MC KIVERGAN, bequeath my office of Pep Club President to Linda Hale so she might keep peace in the fighting Pirates Pep Club. The boxing gloves are in the locker room. I, MARGIE ADAMS, will my quietness and honesty to my younger sister who in turn must not do anything I wouldn't do. I, RON BOTTGER, will my assortment of football pads and ten and one-half rolls of tape to Dick Hingst who in turn must rush two-hundred yards and complete 90% of his passes next year. I, KIRK SAUNDERS, out of sound mind, make my last will. I shall will my dear old locker to anyone who can use it well. Also all my like-new books to a deserving Jr., like Kenny Lamp. I, BARBARA OETKEN, will my long lane to Janet Rohde so that she won't have to park on top of her hill. I, LOREN WALLWEY, will my good driving ability to Andrew Kuhn who must, in turn, never let his Ford die more than once on any one date.

I, EUGENE RASMUSSEN, will my great ability in French class to Danna Rohde and Kay Crinklaw. I, RETA HINGST, will my place on the bus to Patty Lueth and she in turn must ride every night and morning, enduring the noise without complaining. I, JANET ZEISLER, will my intelligence and ability to get along with the teachers to Brian Crain. Use it well, Brian. Also to my cousin Elaine, I will my hair straightener so she wouldn't look so nice all the time. I, VERDEL HABROCK, will my D average to Bruce Sabacky. You can't get any scholarships for it, but you sure have a lot of fun. I, GENE STOLZE, will all of my poor luck in school to each and every student in the Junior Class and any one else who wants it. I, TERRY STINGER, will my ability to leave in a cloud of dust, a puff of smoke, and a hardy hi-ho-silver to everyone. I, DARREL MARVIN ERICKSEN, will my Marvin back to the Engelharts where it belongs.

I, RICHARD DOHRMAN, being of sound mind and body WILL leave. I, MARY JO SCHROEDER, will my ability to comb my hair only twice a day to Elaine Zeisler who in turn must not be seen more than twice a day combing her hair. I, BONNIE JEAN LUETH, being of sound mind and hearty appetite, will my Betty Crocker cookbook to our cooks at EHS. I, DEAN HABROCK, will my favorite word, AIN'T to Miss Wulf. May she always use it with care and enjoyment as I did. I, DON ALBRECHT, will my expression "Well nobody is perfect" to anyone who thinks he is. (Let him learn in peace). I, VELDA BENTON, will my ability to get everything in late in English under Mrs. Mathiesen to anyone that wants to try it. I, JANET DENKER, will my blushing to any underclassmen promising to blush at everybody and everything. May it bring you better luck than I. I, MARILYN WALLWEY, will my sweet and innocent ways to Rayme Adams who must promise to have no more than one date every Saturday.

I, BETTY O'NEIL, will my ability to talk to Carolyn Reed so she may also drive the teachers insane. I, DENNIS STARK, will my ability to play basketball to Duane Anderson who must earn at least two brownie points every practice. I, GIL FREY, will my slim green pick to Dave Spangler. Don't do anything I wouldn't do with it. I, MOLLY JO DITTMAN, will my house in Emerson to Linda Hale so it will be only three and one-half blocks from Gil. I, ALAN BINKLEY, will my cheating techniques to anybody who is willing to try it. Good Luck!!

I, SANDRA SWANSON, will my wardrobe to my sister Nancy, if she keeps on GROWING she'll need it!

Thanks to
WAKEFIELD COMMUNITY HOSPITAL
Wakefield, Nebraska

I, MERLYN STEECKER, will my good grades in English to Alan Curtiss who needs them desperately. He in return must bring home an all red report card next year. I, FRED SAUNDERS, will my great academic ability and outstanding study habits to all the underclassmen. By the looks of the downlist they're going to need it. I, DAVID FREDRICKSEN, will my driving habits to Marlowe Langmack who in return must wreck three cars in his senior year. I, DARREL BELT, will great height to Louie Gill, and I think he will need it.

CLASS PROPHECY

In the spring of 1975, five career girls from Emerson High's class of 1965, Bonnie Frey, Barb Oetken, Velda Benton, Karen Pope and Margie Adams activated their hard-earned savings to take a Caribbean Cruise. At the pier in New York, as they were about to go on board the ship, they were amazed to see their old classmates, Gene Rasmussen and Fred Saunders, stevedores on the dock, hustling cargo and baggage aboard the ship. They were further delighted when invited to dine with the captain, to discover in him another old friend, Tom Gifford!

When they went to the lounge to talk over the good old days, there, dispensing charm and hospitality along with beverages, was Darrell Eriksen, the bartender. He was delighted to see his old classmates and suggested that they stay to see the entertainment that was soon to follow. The lights dimmed and a huge spotlight revealed a graceful acrobatic dance team - Candi Jensen and Gene Stolze. When the pair discovered that their friends were aboard they planned an impromptu reunion on deck the following morning. Imagine their great surprise when they met the bouncing, jolly, and energetic social directors - Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Stecker - (Mrs. Stecker was the former Marilyn Wallwey).

The first stop of the cruise was at Port au Prince. The group arranged to charter a bus for sightseeing. When the uniformed driver turned to face them there was one more member of the class of '65 - Kirk Saunders.

After touring many of the places of interest, Kirk suggested that they have lunch at Chez Marie - a famous restaurant owned and managed by Sandra Swanson. After a delicious lunch and more sight-seeing Sandy suggested a place to spend the evening - a famous night club noted for its excellent Latin music. She promised them further surprises and they were truly amazed. First of all, the master of ceremonies bounced out into the spotlight - Loren Wallwey, their exuberant and witty friend from EHS. And in the band were Gil Frey, playing the bongos, and Terry Stinger at the marimba! Further shock was the theme of the evening when the exotic Latin singer turned out to be Bonnie Lueth in a black wig. Or was it a wig? Later in the show, Bonnie was joined by her partner - Dennis Stark in a peppy cha-cha number. Tables were pushed together, the group spent a delightful evening reminiscing.

In the morning as they were walking on deck, they met two passengers who had boarded ship at Port au Prince, Dr. Judy McKivergan and her assistant, technician Ron Bottger. The warm sun and the tropical moon did their work and before the next port wedding plans were developing for Ron and Velda Benton.

At Kinston, more friends joined the cruise. Mr. and Mrs. Verdel Habrock, missionaries returning from their work in South America. Mrs. Habrock was the former Maralyn Blair. They had news of others of the class; Dean Habrock, Doctor of Divinity, the director of their group, and his wife Mary Jo Schroeder, were working with Indians - deep in the interior of Brazil. Accompanying them was the Rev. Mr. Richard Dohrman, who immediately began renewing old friendships - most particularly the one between himself and Dr. McKivergan.

The enlarged group planned a day at the race track. They pooled their finances, and, over the objections of missionary Habrock, planned to place a bet on entry number 12. Not because they knew anything about the horse, but because the Jockey was Janet Denker - the only girl jockey at the big tracks to have ridden home thirty-three winners! When they went to place the bet, Darrel Belt was behind the pari-mutual window. Janet rode the winner, and when they went to the winner's circle to congratulate her they found that they could also congratulate Donald Albrecht, the owner of a racing stable, the owner of the winning horse and Janet's employer and fiance.

Once more among the new passengers they found old friends. A party of archeologists, returning from the Andes, joined them - Mr. and Mrs. David Frederickson - Mrs. Frederickson was Betty O'Neil. In this same group was Molly Jo Dittman, Alan Binkley and Bonnie Voss. At a sports arena they went to a wrestling show, lady wrestlers. They were Barb Fendrick and Elinor Winslow, Barb won. Word of this amazing coincidental reunion must have reached the large city papers, for a team of newswriters were flown out to meet them. Sure enough, more of the class of '65. Writers, Iris Donley, Janet Zeisler and Reta Hingst - and there with her camera to record it all, photographer, June Kubik. The first picture of the group since back in May, 65. Back at the dock in New York, preparing to disembark they could hardly believe their eyes. The sponsors of the class of '65 from back at EHS, were about to take a similar cruse - Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie on a long deferred second honeymoon, and Mr. and Mrs. Blecher taking a holiday. Mr. Blecher was watching the twins and Mrs. Blecher was counting the luggage.

Farewells at the pier followed. The trip had been more than satisfactory, and with old friendships renewed, promises to keep in touch, and more promises for a real reunion at Emerson in '80, the class of '65 went their separate ways.

CLASS POEM

By Bonnie Voss and Reta Hingst

Janet D. is a tiny lass
She's the pixie of our class
To N. B. T. she'll go one day
People like her winning ways.

Gilbert is our basketball star
People know him from near and far.
He played his best at every game.
In the future we know he'll do the same.

Reta is the quiet one
But, always quick to join in the fun
With fair hair and eyes of blue.
As a friend she is always true.

Elinor, our attendant for '65,
Makes any occasion bright and alive
Always so charming and never a bore
Working or playing her spirits soar.

Loren is a quiet lad
It takes quite a bit to make him mad.
He's always a helpful, considerate guy
A college life he'd like to try.

Our Fred is oh, so sly
He's humorously witty, so watch that guy.
His subjects are done with effortless ease
Lessons for him are quite a breeze.

Eugene is a hardworking guy
A bright future will be his by and by.
To his subjects he's always true
Soon he'll go to Nebraska U.

Bonnie V. is a girl whose moods do vary
Sometimes silent, sometimes merry.
A writer of books she hopes to become
We know she'll be a succesful one.

Velda is a swinging gal
Her laughing ways make her a real pal.
Working or playing with Velda around
We know there will always be a gay sound.

Molly Jo is a handy lass
She's a cheerleader from our class.
At football or basketball games she's seen
Cheering hard to help our team.

Alan is our farmer boy
To worry the teachers is his joy
His football playing you have seen
Alan is really on the beam!

Barbara F. is a brown-eyed gal
Everyone's friend and a swell pal.
Some of her pranks are really sly
John S. is her steady guy.

Merlyn is a quiet guy
Soft-spoken and sort of shy
He's charming and polite to one and all.
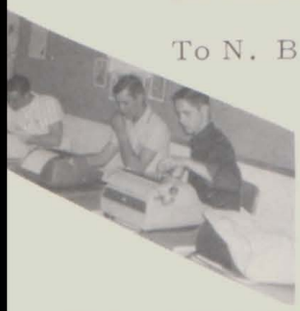
To N. B. T. he'll go this fall.



Dean is a devilish sort
Cracking a joke is his main sport.
He's our attendant for '65
He makes the basketball court come alive.

Richard is a real sharp guy.
With mechanics and math he's really sly
He's really quite charming and full of fun
Richard is admired by everyone.

Our June is a loyal lass
She works hard in every class
As a friend she's trustworthy and fair.
If there's a party, you know she'll be there.

Verdel is such a happy boy
Pestering teachers is his joy.
Oh, yes, he's happy, always on the run.
Verdel's out to have his share of the fun.

Mary Jo is a hardworking girl
Her busy life is always in a whirl
Though she's full of the devil and likes to play.
To Midland she will go one day.

Margie is a brown-haired lass
She's the quiet one in our class
As a friend she's oh, so swell
In whatever she does we know she'll do well.

Bonnie F. is a red-haired lass.
A diligent student in every class
She steps out with many a guy
A swinging girl is Bonnie Frey.

Karen is a fair-haired lass
She's the life of any class
For some fun she's always ready
Marv Flaugh is her steady.

Janet, our Princess, is proud of her looks.
She really works hard when it comes to books.
Yes, she is quiet and shy
But don't let her fool you, there's a steady guy.

David is our prankster guy
He's sneaky, crafty and sly
His purpose in life is to have fun
David is liked by everyone.

Gene S. is a teacher's test
At making trouble he's the very best
A farmer he would like to be
At this he will be good as good can be.

Darrell E., our Prince, is quite a guy.
All the girls give him the eye
He pesters the teachers once in a while.
He's full of mischief, that's his style.

Sandi's personality really shines
At making friends she's really fine.
Her spirit, which is always bright
and gay,
Will help her to gain success someday.

Terry is a charming clown
That boy really gets around
Terry has a ready smile.
Brewing mischief is his style.

Kirk S. is quite a boy
Working on cars is his joy.
In college he is sure to land
We know at this he will be grand.

Marilyn is a very tall lass
She's the funmaker of our class
With eyes that sparkle and mischievous soul.
A college career is her goal.

Our gal Barb O. just can't be beat.
At being a secretary she's very neat.
Barb's personality is fresh and gay.
A big success she'll be someday.

Dennis is a guy who's good with a basketball
His bright smile has been seen by all
He's usually quiet as a rule
Working hard to finish school.

Our Betty is oh, so swell
At her lessons she does real well
She's bright, intelligent, and on the line.
In her future job she'll do just fine.

Senior Class Play

The Senior Class presented its play, "Tammy Tell Me True", on April 30, in the High School Gym. The play was opened with a vocal solo, "Tammy", by Marilyn Wallwey.

The play was under the direction of Mrs. Edna Mathiesen; student director was Molly Jo Dittman.

The play took place in a Southern college town located by a river. Tammy is to attend the college as a "special", which means she will listen in classes. Tammy runs into trouble when she can't live on her shanty boat alone.

Tammy's problem is solved when Mrs. Call, a wealthy resident of the town, comes to live with her on the shanty boat. But Mrs. Call's niece raises a fuss, charges Tammy with kidnapping and claims Mrs. Call is insane.

A trial is held for Mrs. Call and she is declared sane and not guilty. Tammy is allowed to stay at college and be with her new love, Dr. Tom Freeman.

The flute trio entertained between Scene I and Scene II.

The play was very well attended and enjoyed by all.

Baccalaureate

The Baccalaureate service was held May 16, in the gym with the Rev. John Brunn presenting the sermon. Rev. Daniel Schroeder gave the invocation and benediction, the mixed chorus, under the direction of Clinton Carr, sang the processional and the recessional, as well as two other numbers, and the boys' glee presented a number. The ushers for this service were Linda Hale and Wayne Oetken.

Class Night

Senior Class Singing
Their Class Song

Class and Recognition Night for 1965 was held Monday, May 17, in the gym. The class history, prophecy, will, and poem were read. Entertainment consisted of senior music groups. Members of the National Honor Society were initiated and various other awards were presented to members of the student body for achievement during the school year. Ushers for the night were Elaine Zeisler and Russ Morgan.

Senior Poem, continued

Maralyn B. is a gal who's hep
A party girl who's really in step
She's apt at either work or play.
A college girl she'll be one day.

Donnie is a likable guy
Always quiet and kind of shy
His trombone plays a real smooth tune.
He'll go to college very soon.

Candess is gay and always bright
A job well done is her delight.
She's the girl we nicknamed "Candi"
As a college girl she'll do just dandy.

Bonnie L. is our Homecoming queen
Her sparkling blue eyes you may have seen.
As a college girl she'll do her best.
Her gay personality will meet the test.

Tom is an impish guy
Full of stunts, crafty and sly.
Girls and more girls are his joy.
Soon he'll be a Navy boy.

Judy is an all around gal
As a friend there's no finer
A nurse someday she wants to be Keeping busy is her specialty.

Ronnie is our King whose talents vary
With music and math he's really merry
Ronnie is a real bright guy
He'll go to college by and by.

Iris has come to us of late.
In her studies she's really great.
She's a girl whom we admire
Lots of fun and a real live wire.

Darrel B. is an easy-going guy
With a happy grin and a twinkling eye
His outlook on life is always bright
In the future we know he'll do all right.

Some to the rivers
And some to the seas
Some to the soil
Our fathers made free
Then on to the stars
A heaven for to see
This is the new frontier
This is the new frontier.

Sneak Day

The seniors of '65 sneaked off EARLY in the morning of May 18 to spend a day at Arnold's Park at Lake Okibogie. As our luck always seems to run, it was a cold, windy day; but the sun was shining brightly. We spent the day riding the rides, playing miniature golf, or browsing through the shops. In the late afternoon we changed at a cabin rented for that purpose (although a group of boys and Mr. McKenzie found the table just right for a card game) and climbed on the bus to go to a restaurant for our evening meal. We returned in the evening to a moonlight cruise on the lake. The boat had a dance floor and combo. We returned late that night, tired and many sleeping, with many memories to keep.

HAROLD'S SUPER SAVER

The Junior Class presented their play "Nuts in May," on November 12 and 13. Mrs. Edna Mathieson directed the play; Melvin Hansen was student director.

The play centered around stage and screen actress, Cornelia Otis Skinner. Besides preparing for a Broadway opening, Cornelia becomes involved in her son's love-life. Michael, Cornelia's son, invited two girls to his mother's opening, and naturally this presented a problem. Solving Michael's difficulties presented the basis for this delightful farce.

UPPER LEFT: Cornelia's admirers, played by Connie Engelhart and Sherryl Anderson, create more problems for her son, Michael, played by David Jepsen.

MIDDLE: Darlene Schwarz plays the part of one of the girls that Michael invited to his mother's opening.

MIDDLE RIGHT: Cornelia is awaiting the results of her performance. Pictured are: David Jepsen, Connie Eriksen, Mark Brown, and Elaine Zeisler.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Entertainment was provided by "The Animals," composed of Andrew Kuhn, Roger Schwarten, Ken Lamp, Larry Grove, and Marlowe Langmack.

Junior-Senior Prom

Eat, Drink, And Be Merry

The Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet was held in the school gym on May 7. The Juniors carried out the theme of "Apple Blossom Time." The highlight of the decorations was an apple tree in the center of the gym floor. The bleacher area was decorated with umbrellas, butterflies, and a picket fence to look like a spring garden. Other decorations were a bird bath and birds and butterflies with the names of the Juniors and Seniors on them.

Let A Smile Be Your Umbrella

Enjoy Yourself, It's Later Than You Think.

The meal was served by the Paddock Steak House of South Sioux City. Everyone enjoyed a delicious meal of Swiss steak, mashed potatoes, green beans, rolls, salad, and ice cream.

The music for the dance was provided by Jack Seckmann and his Band. The Juniors and Seniors marched to the tune of "Red Roses for a Blue Lady" for the Grand March, which was held at 10:30.

After four weeks of doing menial tasks for the mighty seniors, the green freshmen reached the day of their dreads. On Tuesday, October 6, the "freshies" dressed to suit the imagination of our seniors. The freshmen were seen performing humorous antics coached by any and all seniors. At the party that evening the entertainment was provided by the freshman stunts and dancing to records.

HOMECOMING ROYALTY

The football king and queen of 1964-65 were Ronnie Bottger and Bonnie Lueth. The queen received a dozen red roses, compliments of Puckett's of Pender, and a necklace. The king received a boutonniere and a tie tack.

The senior prince and princess were Darrell Eriksen and Janet Zeisler; senior attendants were Elinor Winslow and Dean Habrock.

Other royalty were: Junior attendants, Carolyn Reed and Roger Schwarten; Sophomore attendants, Danna Ronde and Dick Hingst; Freshman attendants, Bonnie Lamp and Gene Habrock; Jr. High attendants, Jane Renander and Bill Morgan; Kindergarten attendants, Rickey Denker, Julie Longe, Wendy Koopman and Kevin Kropf.

Homecoming ceremonies consisted of: skits presented by each class, a parade down main street including floats that carried out the theme of "When You Wish Upon a Star," halftime entertainment at the game and the crowning ceremonies at the dance.

JUNIOR SKIT

Thursday night a pep rally at the gym and a snake dance to the athletic field, where the Ponca dummy was burned, set off the ceremonies of 1964-65 Homecoming. The eighth grade class was awarded first in the skit contest, the seniors second, and the juniors third.

Friday afternoon the floats built by each class and Pep Club royalty float paraded through the main street led by the band. The sophomores were awarded first place in the float contest, the seniors second, and juniors third place.

At the game the class floats paraded around the field. The Pep Club float, which features a huge star in accordance with the homecoming theme, "When You Wish Upon a Star," was pulled to the center of the field for the presentation of the royalty.

As the wishful strains of "When You Wish Upon a Star" drifted to the stands from the band's star formation, a wish came true for Ronnie Bottger and Bonnie Lueth, king and queen.

The game was followed by the homecoming dance and the crowning ceremony.

The Pirates played one of the most successful basketball seasons in the history of the school. The Pirates posted an impressive 21-5 record in winning a second consecutive Class C District Championship, and a Lewis and Clark Conference Championship. Emerson-Hubbard lost only in tournament play. The 21-5 record is topped only by the 1953 season record of 21-4.

Eight boys received varsity letters, including five senior lettermen shown below: Jr. Ed Sorenson and Wayne Oetken; and Soph. Dick Hingst.

During the season, in which the team placed four trophies in the school's trophy case. Individual recognition: Eriksen and Frey were first team selections on the Logan Valley All-Tournament Team and Sorenson was selected on the second team All-County.

Gil Frey, in setting all new school records for a season and career, was also named to the first team All-County, was an All-State Class C selection in the LINCOLN JOURNAL, sixth choice All-State in the Omaha WORLD-HERALD Class C selections, and was named to the KVTV and KTIV All-Area teams.

The 1965 dramatics group had an excellent year. We tied for second place at the Lewis and Clark contest, losing by only one point. We won the Logan Valley Speech Contest trophy. The entire group took part in district contest at Wayne and state contest at Lincoln. The ratings were quite high at both of these contests.

The plays, "For the Love of a House" and "Which Is the Way to Boston" were given and Elinor Winslow won the best actress award at the Lewis and Clark contest.
