Without music, life would be FLAT.

Here's the Scoop!

Our school newspaper, The French Press, dripped into its third year with a new student editor, Luc Boudreaux. We've covered local issues from road construction to wildfire smoke, and touched on topics from water conservation to a review of the new Star Wars movie.

Our staff writers are: Elliot Bremer, Emilie Hinrichs, Lindy Kolb, Kyler Rebich, Katia Rigler, Jon Potter, Zack Baker, Gail Baldwin, Luc Boudreaux, Sophie Kolb, Nic Martello, and Jasmine McClure. We're always looking to add to the staff, so if you're interested, please come join us during lunch on Tuesdays.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Right: A man of many talents and the NHS Adviser - Mr. Mecham

The National Honor Society (NHS) is the nation's premier organization established to recognize outstanding high school students. More than just an honor roll, NHS serves to recognize those students who have demonstrated excellence in the areas of scholarship, service, leadership, and character. These characteristics have been associated with membership in the organization since its beginning in 1921. Chapter membership not only recognizes students for their accomplishments, but challenges them to develop further through active involvement in school activities and community service.

Mikaela & Hannah

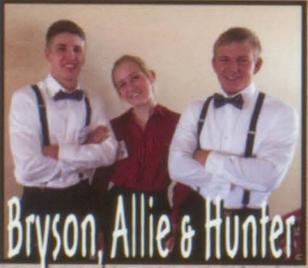

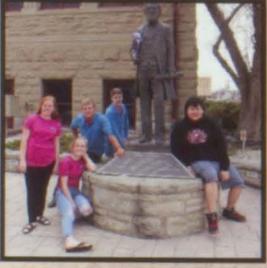

How much does it cost to go to Prom?

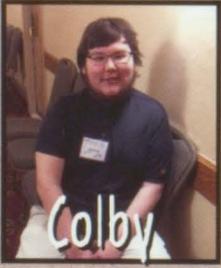

According to Yahoo Style's "2017 Prom Across America Survey," between hair and makeup, outfits, tickets and rides to prom, teens are spending an average of more than $600 on prom. A big factor of how much is spent also depends on where prom-goers live. According to a survey of 1,700, teens in the Northeast, spend the most on prom with an average of $699.56, compared to $625 in the West, $619 in the South, and $610 in the Midwestern part of the United States. Teens in the West spent the least on prom dresses with an average of $202, while parents in the South were willing to spend more on tuxedos and prom dresses. Girls who search for prom dresses today look at it as if they are making an investment as they see additional opportunities to wear it such as at graduation or another prom at another school. The survey revealed that girls in the Northwest preferred wearing column dresses, while those in the South gravitated towards the princess cut, and those in the West liked a high to low (mullet cut) dress.

Abbey Hanson (Senior) - Bronze in Illustrated Talk event.

Jasmine McClure (Sophomore) - Silver in Career Investigation event.

Christine Toavs (Senior) - Gold in Illustrated Talk event - 1st place and qualified to go to the National FCCLA Conference in Atlanta, Georgia this summer.

Jasmine McClure and Christine Toavs - Gold in Sports Nutrition event - 1st place and qualified to go to the National FCCLA Conference in Atlanta, Georgia this summer.

Abbey, Mrs. Larson, Jasmine, & Christine

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America is a nonprofit national career and technical student organization for young men and women in Family and Consumer Sciences education in public and private school through grade 12.

Everyone is part of a family, and FCCLA is the only national Career and Technical Student Organization with the family as its central focus. Since 1945, FCCLA members have been making a difference in their families, careers, and communities by addressing important personal, work, and societal issues through Family and Consumer Sciences education.

Mission: To build and maintain a supportive environment for collaborative and proactive work to help prevent substance abuse and risk behaviors, including but not limited to alcohol and marijuana, and grow healthy and resilient children in the Frenchtown Community

Goal One:

Increase Community Collaboration
 • Use media and outreach to publish coalition events to all members of the Frenchtown Community
 • Network with other community groups & sector representatives
 • Provide outreach to community
 • Provide opportunities for meaningful involvement for coalition members.

Goal Two:

Reduce Youth Use of Alcohol & Marijuana
 • Educate alcohol retailers
 • Increase enforcement strategies
 • Publicize law enforcement activities & consequences of use
 • Enact policy change
 • Engage in media advocacy around risk of substance use
 • Sponsor substance free & prevention activities
 • Provide appropriate and accessible materials to parents.

YEAR IN REVIEW | 2017 2018

NEWS & TRENDS

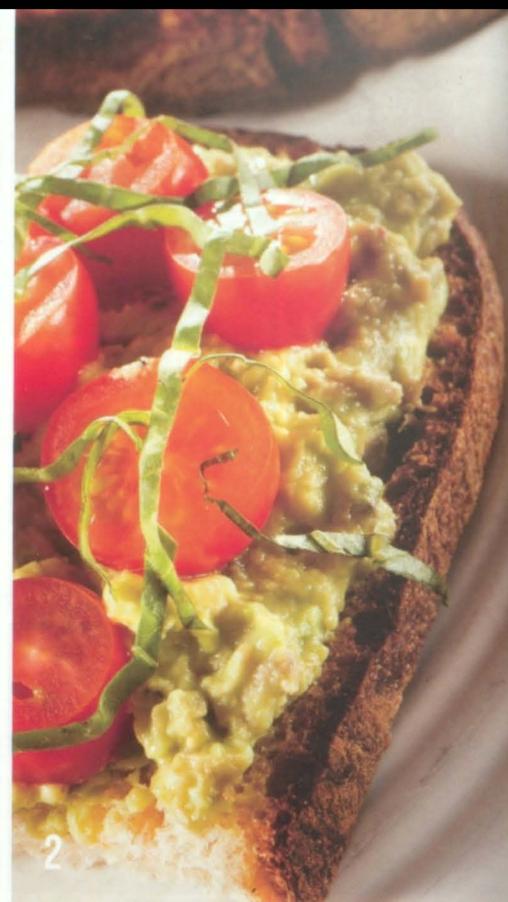

1 Texting fines

A woman texts while crossing the street, an act that will now earn a fine in Honolulu after it became the first major U.S. city to fine pedestrians for texting while crossing the street. The fines ranged from $35-$99.

2 Pass the avocados

Enjoying avocado on toast continues to be a growing food trend and was joined by the avolatte – coffee served inside an avocado. Putting more fun in food, unicorn lattes and ice cream appeared, along with donuts decorated with crushed children's cereal.

3 A royal pair

Prince Harry of Great Britain and Meghan Markle, an American actress, feminist and humanitarian, meet with reporters. They announced their surprise engagement in November and were wed in spring 2018.

4 Hazardous stress reducers

A young woman passes the time by playing with a fidget spinner. Fidget spinners were a new hand-held toy designed to reduce stress, that became wildly popular. But the spinners caused anxiety for parents due to safety concerns, including choking, fire and lead poisoning.

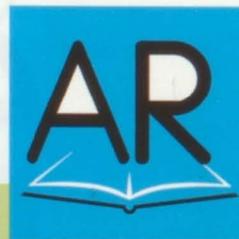

5 Fire danger

A Southern California man stops to pray as fires kicked up near his home in early December. The Santa Ana winds blow more fiercely and longer during the early winter, creating numerous wildfires that caused tens of thousands of people to evacuate.

6 From healthcare to taxes

Republicans in Congress, including House Speaker Paul Ryan, talk to reporters about their plans to repeal or modify the Affordable Care Act. Congress made no headway with their controversial healthcare plans in 2017, so both the House and Senate passed tax reform.

Riding out the storm

Rescue workers evacuate stranded residents in Texas during the 2017 Atlantic hurricane season, which was one of the busiest in years with 10 hurricanes forming and six reaching Category 3 or higher. Hurricane Harvey slammed into south Texas on Aug. 25 as a Category 4 and then stalled, causing catastrophic flooding. Hurricane Irma struck several Caribbean islands before hitting the Florida Keys as a Category 4 storm, and then traveled north through Florida. Hurricane Maria left a swath of devastation across Puerto Rico.

A virus runs rampant

A nurse holds a vial of the season's flu vaccine, which was less effective than normal this year due to the particularly aggressive H3N2 strain of influenza. The outbreak was widespread in every state except Hawaii and caused the Centers for Disease Control to declare it an epidemic.

1 Women speak out

Protestors rally in London as part of the Time's Up and #MeToo movements, which encouraged women to share their stories and end harassment. Many public figures faced backlash after victims came forward with allegations of sexual misconduct. Time magazine named "The Silence Breakers" its 2017 Person of the Year. Merriam-Webster declared "feminism" the 2017 Word of the Year.

2 A brutally cold winter

Revelers brave frigid temperatures at the New Year's Eve celebration in Times Square. An arctic burst dropped the temperature to nine degrees, the second coldest ball drop on record. New York wasn't the only place facing a cold winter. International Falls, Minnesota, which dubs itself the "Nation's Icebox," hit a record low of -36 degrees. Despite the cold wave, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration declared 2017 the globe's third warmest year on record.

3

3 Twice the type

Twitter's signup page, which averaged roughly 330 million monthly active users, displays on a smartphone. In November 2017, Twitter doubled its character limit from 140 to 280, to mixed reviews. The most popular social media platforms among American teenagers were Instagram and Snapchat (according to Science Daily).

4

4 Slime!

A group of girls stir together the ingredients for slime. This gooey, homemade gunk experienced a resurgence in popularity. Most recipes require only a combination of white glue and laundry detergent, with food coloring to make it bright.

5

5 Rising tensions

A South Korean soldier stands watch at Panmunjon village, on the border with North Korea. Tensions between the North and the rest of the world continued to rise, as the small, isolated country continued missile tests despite facing sanctions. North and South Korea resumed talks after two years of silence, during which the South allowed North Korea to send athletes to the 2018 Winter Olympics.

6

6 Unicorn everything

The limited-edition Starbucks Unicorn Frappuccino fills the pages of Instagram. The brightly-colored coffee concoction changed color and was an instant hit on social media. The unicorn trend didn't stop there, spreading to foods like bagels, toast, cake and smoothies and even outside the kitchen, with brightly-dyed unicorn hair and multi-colored painted nails.

SPORTS

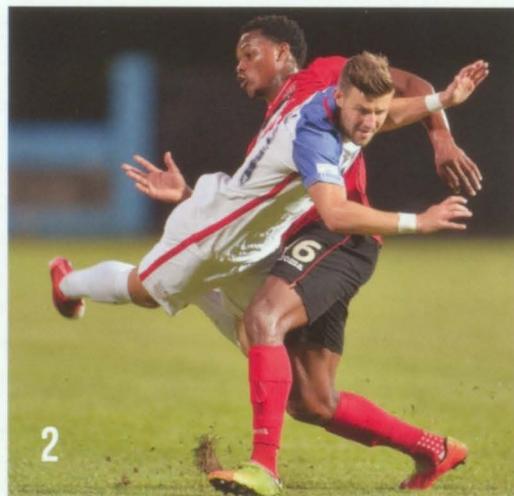

1 Houston, you have a champion

The Houston Astros celebrate after winning the World Series, defeating the Los Angeles Dodgers in seven games. Playing for a city devastated by a hurricane just two months earlier, the Astros survived a classic series filled with comebacks and extra-inning games to win the first world title in team history. Houston's George Springer was named MVP for slugging five home runs and eight extra base hits, the most ever in a World Series.

2 Sad day for U.S. soccer

U.S. men's soccer team player Paul Arriola gets tripped up during a World Cup qualifying game against Trinidad and Tobago on Oct. 10. For the first time in more than 30 years, the U.S. failed to qualify for the World Cup after they lost, 2-1, in a stunning defeat.

3 40 years in the making

Runner Shalane Flanagan reacts after crossing the finish line at the 2017 New York City Marathon on Nov. 5. Flanagan, an Olympic silver medalist, became the first American woman to win the New York City Marathon in 40 years.

4 Roll Tide!

Alabama quarterback Tua Tagovailoa attempts to run through the Georgia defense during the college football National Championship Game on Jan. 8 in Atlanta. Tagovailoa, an 18-year old freshman, came off the bench in the second half and helped the Crimson Tide rally from a 13-point deficit to win, 26-23, in overtime.

Fly, Eagles, fly!

Philadelphia's Nick Foles eludes the New England Patriots defense during Super Bowl 52 in Minneapolis. Foles, the Eagles backup QB who was forced to play when starter Carson Wentz was injured, led Philadelphia to a 41-33 win and was chosen the game's MVP by throwing for 373 yards and three touchdowns, as well as catching a touchdown. The two teams combined for 1,151 yards – the most in any single game in NFL history.

5 Boxing vs. MMA

Undeclared boxer Floyd Mayweather Jr. and mixed martial arts superstar Conor McGregor fight in a highly publicized boxing match on Aug. 26 in Las Vegas. The fight, which Mayweather won by TKO in the 10th round, generated more than 4.4 million pay-per-view buys in the U.S.

SPORTS

1 American takeover at U.S. Open
Sloane Stephens celebrates after battling through a historic all-American women's semifinal and final at the 2017 U.S. Open to clinch her first-ever Grand Slam title. Stephens had returned to the tour only two months earlier after time off for an injury and was ranked 957th in the world.

2 Dream season
NASCAR driver Martin Truex Jr. celebrates after winning the Ford EcoBoost 400 on Nov. 19 at the Miami Speedway. The win clinched the first Cup Series championship for Truex Jr., who enjoyed a dream season with eight wins and 19 top five finishes in 36 races.

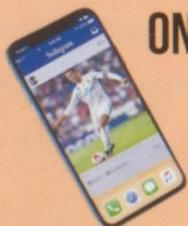

3 Walk-on to Heisman
Oklahoma's Baker Mayfield responds to the crowd after winning the Heisman trophy in a landslide victory. The OU quarterback garnered the third-highest percentage of possible points (86 percent) in the Heisman voting since 1950. Mayfield, who began his career as a walk-on at Texas Tech, became the first-ever non-scholarship player in the scholarship era to win the Heisman.

4 Dauwalter sets the bar
Courtney Dauwalter, a 31-year-old school teacher from Colorado, wins The Moab 240-mile Endurance Run outright by 10 hours. In its inaugural year, the 383K ultra, which took place in Moab, Utah, catered to a special breed of ultrarunners. Only 150 registrants were allowed, and runners had a cutoff at 112 hours—nearly five days of running. Dauwalter finished the course at just less than 58 hours.

5 Wu wins epic match

Chia Yen Wu, an eighth grader from Chinese Taipei, makes USGA history, prevailing in a 30-hole match in the quarterfinals at the U.S. Women's Amateur Championship. Wu's match with Lauren Stephenson was the longest in 117 years of USGA championship history. At 13 years, 4 months and 17 days old, Wu was the youngest player ever to advance to the championship's semifinals. (Photo by Steven Gibbons)

The kids are all right

Chloe Kim of the U.S. executes a trick in the Ladies' Halfpipe at the 2018 Winter Olympics in Pyeongchang, South Korea. Kim, 17, was one of the highlights for the Americans when she took gold in the event with a near-perfect score of 98.25. Another 17-year-old American, Red Gerard (inset), celebrates his victory in the men's Snowboarding Slopestyle competition. Gerard pulled off a spectacular final effort, earning a score of 87.16 to become the youngest American man to win an Olympic winter gold medal since 1928.

TOP BOX OFFICE HITS OF THE YEAR

Star Wars: The Last Jedi - $533 million

Beauty and the Beast - $504 million

Wonder Woman - $412 million

Guardians of the Galaxy 2 - $389 million

1 What a wonder

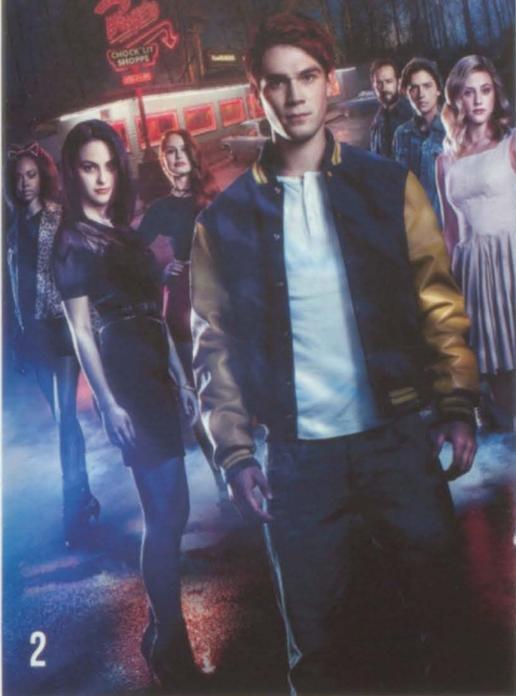

Actress Gal Gadot springs into action as the popular superhero Wonder Woman in this year's movie of the same name. The summer blockbuster became a huge hit and one of the highest-grossing superhero movies of all time.

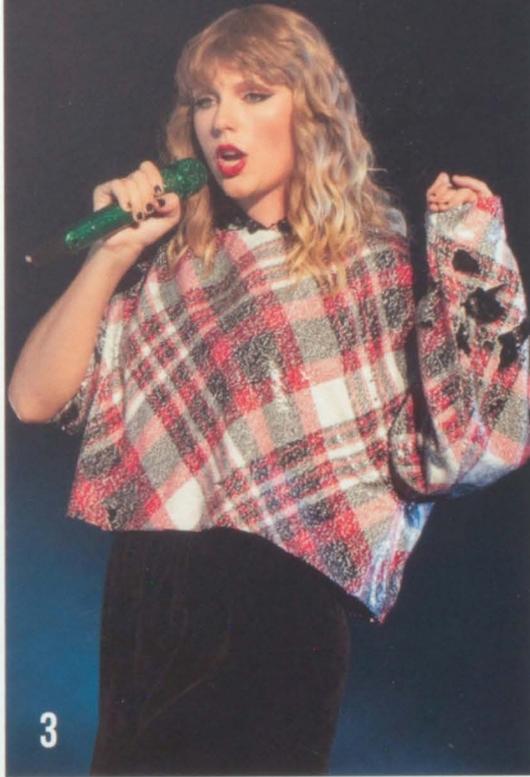

It's good to be The Last Jedi

Rey confronts Luke Skywalker in a scene from Star Wars: The Last Jedi. The latest Star Wars movie hit theaters just before Christmas and fans were hooked. The film earned $533 million in the first two weeks, making it the biggest box office hit of the year.

2 Archie and the gang
The cast of the new CW television show, Riverdale, gets unveiled to audiences. The show, loosely based on the characters first seen in the famous Archie Comics, was hailed as innovative by critics and became popular with younger audiences.

3 Protecting her rep
Taylor Swift performs at a concert in San Jose, California, in December. Swift's newest album, Reputation, was released in November and sold more than two million copies in a week, making it the best-selling album of 2017.

4 Back and even stranger
Mike, Will and the entire gang from Hawkins are getting ready for more trouble. Wildly popular and critically acclaimed Netflix sci-fi TV series Stranger Things returned for its second season, debuting the weekend before Halloween to huge numbers of viewers.

5 ÷ = lots of hits
Pop star Ed Sheeran performs for fans, while his latest album, ÷, made him the best-selling musical artist of 2017. Songs "Castle on the Hill," "Shape of You" and "Perfect" all were among the most downloaded tracks of the year.

6 No more lies
Pretty Little Liars releases its seventh, and final, season to its fans on Freeform. Another Freeform TV show, Switched at Birth, also aired its final season this year, with millions of fans tuning into the series finales of the hit shows.

Grammy magic

Bruno Mars performs “Finesse (Remix)” at the 60th Grammy Awards. It was a big night for Mars, who swept six total awards. In addition to winning Best R&B Performance, Best R&B Song and Best R&B Album, Mars eventually took the top three categories, winning Song of the Year for “That’s What I Like,” Record of the Year for 24K Magic and Album of the Year.

1 SNL resurgence

Actress Melissa McCarthy drives a podium down a New York City street, while filming a sketch for Saturday Night Live. Thanks to presidential-election fueled viewership, SNL had its best season in 23 years. The long-running NBC sketch show seized on a turbulent presidential campaign and an even more tumultuous presidency—leading to an increase in viewers, ratings and viral sketches.

2 Oprah steals the show
 Oprah Winfrey delivers an electrifying speech at the 75th Annual Golden Globes as she accepts the Cecil B. DeMille Award. Winfrey was the first African American recipient of the honor and the 15th woman since the award's inception in 1952. Her speech about sexual harassment, racial injustice and press freedom brought the audience to their feet and had many urging her to run for office.

3 Critics pick Kendrick
 Kendrick Lamar poses with his collection of trophies at the 2017 MTV Awards. Lamar's latest album was crowned music critics' favorite of the year, beating out some of the year's best-selling albums. Critics gushed over the Compton-born rapper's fourth studio effort, with Billboard magazine stating: "It is the unimpeachable truth that Kendrick Lamar recorded the greatest album of 2017."

4 A special lady
 Actress Saoirse Ronan stars as the title character in the coming-of-age high school comedy, Lady Bird. Lady Bird was nominated for Best Picture at the 90th annual Academy Awards, as was The Shape of Water, Guillermo del Toro's genre-bending film about loving "otherness," which led all movies with 13 nominations. Other Best Picture nominees included Get Out and Dunkirk.

5 Long live the king
 Marvel's comic book character T'Challa, played by Chadwick Boseman, suits up for the big screen in his stand-alone flick, Black Panther. The landmark film, which was released in February, featured a modern black superhero and a primarily black cast in a Marvel movie for the first time. Black Panther's $200 million opening weekend was one of the five largest ever.
