SUPERINTENDENT REPORT:

Rusty Bookman, Energy Optimizers presentation on replacement of football field lights, High School and Elementary building light replacement.

Mr. Baldwin – The remainder doors and windows have arrived and will be installed later this week. We will be seeking a quote to replace the windows in the Vo Ag Building.

The fair school funding was blocked in the Senate.

Mr. Doak asked Mr. Baldwin if he has heard anything about possible businesses coming to the area. Mr. Baldwin responded that he has heard good things but nothing formal. Mr. Baldwin stated that the annual report of the Port Authority stated the AEP property was sold. Mr. Baldwin will keep the Board up to date if there are any changes.

Mr. Doak asked about the tree behind the High School gym and wanted to know if Mr. Baldwin had contacted anyone about its removal. Mr. Baldwin stated that he had contacted someone but they had not returned his call. Mr. Baldwin had put this to the side as other items had taken precedence but will have something for the Board by the next meeting.

HB310 – Security Grant

Mr. Baldwin asked the Board to let him know what they would like to see done in the District after the lighting project (if pursued).
