

PRESS RELEASE FROM THE CHARLTON COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT

The teachers, administrators, and all staff members of the Charlton County School District are devastated by the news of the drowning of one of our students, Raymond Wade. Raymond was a well-liked and respected young man, and he will be sorely missed by our community. Charlton County High School has grief counselors available for students that need support in dealing with this loss as they return to school. Our prayers go out to Raymond's family.
