Orange-Ulster BOCES is offering You are Here family fun to promote literacy and help connect families to local resources and history. You are Here is for students in grades 4 and 5 during 2020-2021 who are English Language Learners and/or readers who would benefit from support.

Your child will participate in Investigate, Explore, Create, and Share activities focusing on local and New York State and literacy. Examples of online and offline activities include virtual tours, reading ebooks, listening to audiobooks, crafts, games, and live online events with guest artists, historians, and more.

Please register online by February 15, 2021 by filling out the form at <https://forms.gle/AfouKb1HMOV3VTzhF8>. Orange-Ulster BOCES will contact your family with additional program information.

Program Goals:

- Encourage positive attitudes about reading and books
- Motivate students to maintain reading skills
- Promote library services and resources in the community
- Foster cooperation between community agencies
- Increase family participation in reading activities
- Study New York State History as part New York State K-12 Social Studies Framework.
