

1) Teaching Resources 2) Teaching Tools 3) Book Resources 4) Reference 5) More – Additional Items

1) Teaching Resources

- Digital Resources by Grade
- Diversity—Coming soon
- Explore and Discover by Topic
- Lending Resources
- Local History
- Teaching Guides
- Teach to Learn (T2L)
- Science
- Social Studies

Highlights:

- T2L has full science units with supporting resources
- Digital Resources has grade level digital connections along with the number of items available for lending from the CMC.
- Explore & Discover is a place to highlight resources by topic.
- Explore the Science & Social Studies links for ongoing additions of helpful resources for all grades.

2) Teaching Tools

Introduction & Quick Links to: ReadWorks, Sora, ReadWorks, Discovery Education, Epic, Book Creator, Kami, Pear Deck, and more.

Highlights:

Look here for updates on great tools for teachers you might have heard of or been introduced to.

3) Book Resources

- All About Books
- Book Sharing
- Authors & Illustrators
- Art & Illustration

Highlights:

Check out Book Sharing for a curated listing of helpful book channels with read alouds and other book highlights.

4) Reference

- Library World Digital Catalog
- Primary Source Resources
- North Adams Public Library
- Library of Congress
- School Libraries

Highlights:

- Access Library World to search the school libraries and CMC for available resources.
- Primary Source Resources connects you with a large variety of teaching material using primary source documents.

More

5) Additional Resources

- Journal/Sketchnoting
- Music to Support Lessons
- Photographs
- Background Music
- Teacher Book Rooms

Highlights:

- journal /sketchnoting resources to support learning for any topic or grade level.
- do you need some calm background music? Here you'll find a selection.
- Photographs includes a growing library of free to use photographs connected to classroom content.