

JOB POSTING

February 18, 2021

The Turkey Valley School District is looking for a Family and Consumer Science Instructor for 21-22 school year.

This position is currently half-time but the district is willing to look at combining it with something else to make it full time. If a candidate has a current Iowa Teaching License, but doesn't have the appropriate endorsement, the district may be willing to financially assist with obtaining it. Please see the district website for more information.
