

Daily Announcements

Random Acts of Kindness (RAK) Challenge is due today. Email Mrs. Meskimen or Mrs. Freund if you have a question.

Are you looking for a way to feel empowered and get active in a noncompetitive setting this spring? Join Girls on the Run (Heart and Soul). Girls on the Run will practice on Wednesday and Thursday from 2:45-4:00 in preparation for a 5K in May. Check your email for more information and details on registering. Space is limited, so secure a spot as soon as possible.

Great job to all the advisory classes who finished their COLLABORATIVE POSTERS! Check your email and click on the GOOGLE SITE to see all the advisories work. Although we are six feet apart, this is a work of heart.

Tomorrow is the final TRIVIA GAME for our celebration of Black History month. This week's theme is WHO SAID IT? Check your email for the study guide. The BOOKLET and prizes will be distributed tomorrow. Good Luck!

This Friday's Spirit Day is red, white, and blue. You must be wearing red & white & blue to get a point for your grade. The 6th grade had their streak snapped last week by the 8th grade. 7th grade, time to step up your game.

Recipients of the "I Am A Patriot" campaign today are Gianna Cathedral, Emma Volk, Issac Rhodes, Cesar Miramontes, Noora Matari, and Maisey Kusmicki.

Students: Please remember to socially distance at all times; wear your masks over your nose and mouth; and follow the lunchtime directives.