

Summer Reading List English 11

“Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body.” Sir Richard Steele

The English Department of Ripley High School incorporates independent reading into every grade level. Reading increases knowledge, vocabulary, spelling, and comprehension skills. In an effort to prepare you for your next class, we have provided the following list to encourage your continued development over the summer.

Summer Reading Projects will be due on Friday, September 16, 2022. Extra credit will be given for projects that are turned in during the first week of school (August 24-26, 2022).

English 11 students are required to read one (1) of the books from the list below or complete a Passion Project. If you choose a novel, you must complete one creative assignment from the back of this page and a SOAPStone literary analysis for it.

AP Language /English 101 students should check with their teacher for requirements.

A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court – Mark Twain available online free at www.gutenberg.org

A Farewell to Arms – Ernest Hemingway

The Bell Jar – Sylvia Plath free online pdf available at https://ia802804.us.archive.org/21/items/TheBellJar_201810/The%20Bell%20Jar%20.pdf

The Catcher in the Rye – J.D. Salinger free online pdf available at <https://www.booksfree.org/the-catcher-in-the-rye-by-j-d-salinger/>

The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian – Sherman Alexie

Kindred – Octavia Butler

Looking for Alaska – John Green

The Bonesetter's Daughter – Amy Tan

A Thousand Splendid Suns – Khaled Hosseini

Killing Lincoln – Bill O'Reilly

No Easy Day – Mark Owen

Just Don't Fall – Josh Sundquist

Ender's Shadow – Orson Scott Card

When She Woke – Hillary Jordan

March: Book Three graphic novel – John Lewis

Persepolis graphic novel – Marjane Satrapi

The Outsider – Stephen King

Scythe – Neil Schusterman

The Time Machine – H.G. Wells available online free at www.gutenberg.org

The Hiding Place – Corie Ten Boom

*Reading lists include books from WVDE, Common Core text recommendations, college recommended reading lists, librarian recommendations, and approved student recommendations. *Alternative books from the provided list must be discussed with the English Dept. before they are approved for the assignment.

*Copies of these books are readily available in paper and electronic form through the Ripley Public Library and once school starts, the high school library.

School electronic copies are on Destiny Discover all summer, at <https://jackwv.follettdestiny.com>. Click Ripley High School and Destiny Discover. Username: 9-digit ID number Password: same as Canvas

Summer Reading Projects

This assignment will be due during the first few weeks of the school year. You may choose to work on it during that time period, but it is highly recommended that the project is completed during the summer, as you read the book.

Understand that these projects are to demonstrate your reading and understanding of the books. They have not been designed as research. Any attempt to plagiarize or inappropriately use work from an outside source may result in a zero.

- Design a graphic novella retelling a major event or storyline in the book. You must have a minimum of 8 pages. These should include dialogue and details which appropriately represent the characters. This is not the same format as a children's book which may have a single picture on the page. Rather, it should be a series of frames per page. Please don't use stick figures. You will be graded on effort, not necessarily on artistic skills.

*Not an option for those students who choose a graphic novel from the book list.

- Compile a photo album or scrapbook. Choose one of the major characters in your book, and as that person, depict memories and themes from the plot. Write a description of the scenes displayed to explain why they are special and memorable to the character. *The photo album and scrapbook should use pictures you took yourself.

- Assume you are a major character from the book. From that character's perspective, write a series of journal entries about what happens after the book's ending. The final product should be in first person point-of-view and must be 3-5 pages long when typed and double-spaced. Please use a 12-point font.

- Interview one of the major characters from the book. Choose at least 7 questions that reflect the events and themes they experienced. Questions and answers should go beyond surface level details to require critical thinking. This is not supposed to be a study guide, but rather a dialogue between yourself and another person. That means one sentence per question will not suffice. Aim for a paragraph or more.

- Make a playlist of a minimum of 10 songs that reflect the themes and feelings of the characters in the plot. Consider what order they should be placed in to tell the story or create a series of emotions. Include a paragraph of explanation for each song choice and specific examples of how the lyrics relate to the text. (Instrumental songs are permitted, but the tone, mood, or instruments must be explained.)

- Pretend your book was a TV show. Create a short video mimicking an episode of the book. Begin it with a "Previously on _____" synopsis. Then act out a pivotal scene. End the video with a "Next time on _____" preview. The total video should be a minimum of 5 minutes long. Please provide a brief written explanation of why you chose this scene.

Literary Analysis SOAPSTone

MLA Citation:

Author's Last Name, First. Title. Publishing Co, Year.

Speaker: What can you infer about the speaker or protagonist? He/She is not necessarily the author of the book. Consider such things as age, gender, education level, tone.

Point of View: (first-person or third-person)

Other major characters: (Include names and connections to the narrator.)

Occasion:

What historical events were going on around the time the story was set? When it was written? What historic context or events would help you better understand the book?

Genre: (Ex: romance, biography)

Setting: When:

Setting: Where:

Setting: Culture:

(Important ideas about the setting. Ex: Set before technology was prevalent; Set where people have magical powers)

Audience:

To whom would you recommend this book? Why?

Did you enjoy the book? Why? Use examples to support your opinion.

Purpose: What was the author's purpose with in this story? (inform, entertain, persuade)

What action did he/she want from you?

How can you tell?

Subject/Summary: Tell the basic plot of the story, including the major problem and resolution.

Major Conflicts: What other arguments, disagreements, tension, or changes in emotion occurred? Why?

Tone: How does the speaker react to other characters? What overall voice, or feeling, did the book have?

Theme: A theme is the major lesson or message of the story. What one idea sums up the book best?
