Authority

Washington State law (RCW 28A.400.303) requires that all new employees of a school district, an educational service district, the state center for childhood deafness and hearing loss, the state school for the blind, approved charter schools and their contractors hiring employees who have regularly unsupervised access to children be fingerprinted for a record check through the Washington State Patrol (WSP) and Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

Washington State law (RCW 28A.410.010) requires that all applicants who do not possess a valid Washington educational certificate at the time of application be fingerprinted for a record check through the WSP and FBI.

Washington State law (RCW 28A.195.080) authorizes approved private schools to require their employees with regular unsupervised access to children be fingerprinted for a record check through the WSP and FBI.

If you believe the results of your background check from the FBI are not complete or are wrong, you have an opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information. Send a written challenge request to the FBI's Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division by writing to the following address: FBI CJIS Division, Attention: Correspondence Group, 1000 Custer Hollow Road, Clarksburg, WV 26306 Your written request to the FBI should clearly identify the information that you feel is inaccurate or incomplete and should include copies of any available proof or documents that support your claim. The correspondence group will contact appropriate agencies to try to verify or correct challenged entries for you. When the FBI receives official communication from the agency with jurisdiction over the matter, the FBI will make appropriate changes and notify you of the outcome. (This process is described in 28 C.F.R. § 16.34)
