

Walkers and Riders

The district shall furnish transportation to all Akron R-1 students who live within the school district boundaries and outside of the Akron city limits and to students who are attending a school other than their assigned school.

Transportation shall be furnished if, in the opinion of the Board, extreme hardship or dangerous conditions prevail. For this reason, students who live within the city limits, but on the south side of the railroad tracks will be transported. Transportation shall be furnished to students enrolled in licensed daycare facilities within the city limits. Students living in the Westin Ridge Addition that is not part of the contiguous city limits will be transported.
