ATHLETIC DIRECTOR GREENE

1. Team Reporting
 - a. Summer Weights has continued to progress forward since the beginning of June. Coach Brinkman and Coach Johnson continue to lead the weightlifting and conditioning program. All of the other Head Coaches started to assist in the weight room beginning June 15th when directives were lifted from the NSAA. July first was the first official day for having zero restrictions on all sports/activities. All schools must continue to abide by the NSAA Summer Bylaws as usual but there are no COVID restrictions. Coaches and athletes are encouraged to maintain social distancing at all times possible, sanitize regularly, wear masks (coaches), use individual cups or player designated water bottles for each athlete. All teams will be attending camps and summer leagues within close proximity to the school. Mr. Greene encouraged them to only attend camps and/or summer leagues where the environment was more controlled and they knew the teams and coaches they would be competing against. He believes this will help with potentially track specific teams, athletes, coaches, if someone were to become sick.
2. Personnel/Coaching/Evaluation/Professional Development
 - a. NCA Coaches Clinic has been cancelled for the summer and there hasn't been any other coaching clinics and/or professional development schedule due to COVID 19.
3. Important Dates for July
 - a. Prom – July 25th
 - b. HS FB Camp – July 13th – 17th
 - c. HS Girls BB camp July 13th – 16th
 - d. VB Scrimmage vs Raymond Central – July 20th & 27th
 - e. HS FB Camp July 21st – 23rd
 - f. HS WR Camp -- July 27th – 29th
4. Booster Club Updates
 - a. There are no new updates regarding the Booster Club at this time.
5. Fundraisers/Future Fundraisers

- a. Cheer just completed their firework stand at the Dairy Queen in Fremont for the second straight year. They are hoping to make somewhere around $4,000 to go toward their overall cheer budget and uniforms. Each individual girl who worked the firework stand earns an individual stipend that is put toward their individual cheer bill.
6. Miscellaneous
 - a. NSAA has released their COVID 19 four-tier color system regarding NSAA sanctioned events. Mr. Greene is working to make sure that the school's four-tiered color system is in direct alignment with the NSAA.
 - b. Mr. Greene is also working on coming up with a plan for each colored tier in-regards-to our sports and activities in the fall.
 - c. Football Helmets Update
