Message from Mrs. Flinders

Hello Everyone! Wow! We have made it to March. Way to go! March can seem like a long month for students, staff members and parents. We are putting some fun events in place to help March move along. The secretaries are doing March "Lunchroom" Madness. Brackets and prizes are involved. Ask your student about it. Crazy sock day is on Tuesday, March 2. Grade level assemblies about LEARN are on Tuesday, March 2. For recess, we are purchasing targets for snowball throwing and we have a snowball basketball game for two different playgrounds. If you have any other ideas, please email me. I would love to hear your thoughts. Thank you for caring about our school family:

Stay Positive

Challenging behaviors are a typical part of childhood development. When these behaviors arise, it is easy to fall into the pattern of telling children what NOT to do. However, with positive language, we can create opportunities for children to be successful by telling them what they should do instead. Positive language can be used to nip behavior in the bud, or as a redirection in response to misbehavior. Changing communication styles takes time and practice, but word choice makes all the difference when addressing behavior.
