Treasurer's Report: Mrs. Tussey reviewed with the Board the details of the updated Five Year Forecast and Assumptions that she will submit to ODE by the deadline of 5/30/2022. She explained the importance of continually monitoring Line 6.010 and when your expenditures are exceeding your revenues and this continues your fund balance will decline. She explained that the forecast can change up or down in expenditures due to the turnover of employees and/or the rise in utilities. She will continue to monitor these costs and with the ratification of the union contracts for both certified and classified for three years there will be actual costs that should make the forecasting going forward with high accuracy.

Superintendent's Report:

Mr. Carlier shared with the Board about the legislative changes regarding Pre-School for the 2022-2023 and the goal of Fayetteville Perry Schools is to have 4 days of preschool each week but today we have 2 preschool classes and we may have to have a different schedule or arrangement.

Mr. Wallace, HS Principal and Mrs. Greco, Dean of Academics were both present and shared that they were excited to provide the 61 candidates who will be receiving their diploma at the 2022

Commencement on Friday, May 20th. There were a couple of students who were at risk however with the ability to complete coursework on-line has proven to be an advantage for our students today. Mr. Wallace provided a Seating Chart for the board members listing the graduates. There are 59 participating in the ceremony. The Middle School State Test results are in and we are very proud of the our students and staff on their accomplishments. Kindergarten Award Ceremony tomorrow morning.

The Facility Improvement Committee have been meeting and discussing the plans and financing of our Outdoor Learning Facility. Currently getting quotes for a pavilion and the cost of this project. The Brown County ESC will share grant funding through a stipend for our 2022 Summer Learning Program.

Southern Hills Career Technical Center: Completion Ceremony tomorrow @ BC Fairground-7 p.m.
