MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Dear Alumni, Friends and Supporters of Lima Central Catholic,

So many wonderful things have happened at LCC since I last wrote to you. We have bid farewell to the Class of 2016, the 60th class to graduate from Lima Central Catholic. We had a wonderful school year that included a state basketball championship. The efforts in the Advancement Office were record setting for LCC and our enrollment for the 2016-17 school year looks much better than anticipated. Last, but definitely not least, David Kidd (LCC '05) was recently ordained a priest and is now Fr. David Kidd. In fact, Fr. David will celebrate our opening school liturgy on August 18 before he heads back to Rome to finish the final year of his education.

As I write today, I do so with a heavy heart as it pertains to our country. I chose the passage above from the Gospel of John with the hope that our God will help right what is going on in the United States. I find it so very hard to understand how individuals do not consider life to be very precious, a gift from God. Whether it's a Supreme Court decision dealing with abortion, the violence in Dallas, Baton Rouge or Minneapolis, our country is very much in the need of prayer to our Savior. I still believe we are a God-loving country and that is why I find peace in John 16:33, "But take heart! I have overcome the world." I ask everyone who receives this magazine to take a few moments each day and ask our Lord to help us, our country, the United States of America. At LCC, we educate our young citizens in faith, love and charity. I pray our young people have a country where they can find peace each and every day.

Hopefully, many of our alumni will return to LCC to help celebrate the 60th anniversary of our school. Please mark September 9-11 on your calendar for what will be a great birthday party for Lima Central Catholic. Thank you for the support you provide the current T-Birds and Lima Central Catholic. Many blessings to all!

Yours in Catholic Education,

Walt Klimaski

"I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world."

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

The summer of 2006 was a long one. After being hired to teach social studies at LCC, I spent the majority of June, July and August preparing for the upcoming school year. Although I was excited to return to my alma mater, the thought of former teachers now being colleagues was a bit intimidating.

Once the school year began, I spent countless hours trying to come up with creative and challenging lesson plans for one difficult class in particular and, by the end of the first month, I was drowning in grading and lesson planning. A few months into the school year, Ginny Moore stopped by LCC to visit some of her former colleagues; Ginny had taught history at LCC for years and was one of the main reasons why I decided to become an educator. In the mid-late 1990's, I had taken every class that I could with her. I had never told her how much I enjoyed having her as a teacher and wasn't sure she would even remember me eight years later but, to my delight, she did. However, she was not convinced that things were "going well" when she inquired about my classes. (Apparently a teacher's memory isn't the only thing that stays intact when they retire; her instincts were also spot on!) When she invited me to her house to chat, I jumped at the chance.

When I arrived at Ginny's house, I was invited into her library and was blown away by the number of books on every topic imaginable. After some chitchat, Ginny began to inquire about the topics I was covering in class. As I began to rattle off the people and events, she proceeded to walk over to the appropriate bookshelf and retrieve books on each topic. I was amazed that she knew right where to look; she was a live Google search engine. Within fifteen minutes, I had ten new books and thus began our weekly visits. The books were nice and very much appreciated, but it was her knowledge about history and the wisdom about life that I looked forward to the most. On one of my last visits before she got very ill, she gave me some of her personal effects. One piece in particular is my favorite: a Thunderbird ring.

My Thunderbird ring has become a staple in my wardrobe, particularly on spirit days. One day after taking over as school counselor after Bob Seggerson announced his retirement, he happened to notice it and asked where I got it. When I told him, he smiled and informed me that he had gotten the ring for Ginny on a trip out west in the summer of 1977. Talk about feeling nostalgic: I was wearing a ring that my former history teacher once wore that was given to her by my current mentor. When I asked Seg if he wanted it back, he told me to "keep it, wear it and pass it on at some point."

Ten years later, I continue to wear the ring. It reminds me of all those special Thunderbirds, like Ginny Moore and many others, who have shaped LCC into what it is today. Several of them are depicted in the mural atop the bleachers in the Fr. Herr Gymnasium. Every year Seg teaches students about the history of the school so that they can provide information about LCC's history as well as the current happenings of the school when they give tours to alumni and prospective students and families.

Each of the people in the mural represent themselves and many others who had a hand in establishing the faith-based, academically sound and athletically competitive programs that have made LCC what it is today. As Theodore Roosevelt once said, 'the more you know about the past, the better off you will be about the future'. When they hear stories about Fr. Herr and Ginny Moore, our students learn about the school's beginning and its evolution through changing times, all the while keeping Christ at the center.

As Catholic educators, we strive always to educate the mind, heart and spirit in the ways of Christ. Whether it is through our new course Freshmen Focus, annual class retreats, our College Credit Plus program or signature senior capstone initiative, we are committed to providing our students with faith formation, real world experiences, and higher-level critical thinking skills. This year we are introducing a new initiative where the entire LCC faculty, staff and student body community will read the book Start Something That Matters, by Blake Mycoskie. The message of the book will be integrated into our curriculum throughout the next school year through classroom discussions, service projects and, hopefully, other divinely inspired initiatives.

This year I'll be serving LCC as principal. You can be sure that my Thunderbird ring will be called upon for inspiration and reassurance from Ginny Moore and all the many others who have led this great school in the past. While I'll probably not be passing the ring to anyone any time soon, I promise to pass on the proud traditions that have formed LCC today.

After 14 years of being in the classroom, I have now moved across the hall to become the new Athletic Director of Lima Central Catholic High School. As you know athletics and band are 100% self supporting. Currently 88% of our student body participates in athletics or band. The cost to operate and maintain these programs has now reached $500,000. With the success of fundraisers and the help of volunteers we have been able operate our programs effectively. I look forward in growing our support through the Athletic Boosters, Athletic Field Project and the Gil Hyland Fund to continue these successful programs. Lastly, I am very thankful to all the coaches and supportive staff for their continued support to help better our students.

STUDENT LIFE

CAMPUS MINISTRY

The Department of Campus Ministry organizes and implements activities that focus on the spiritual value and life of the school. The Department of Campus Ministry does not complete this task on its own; rather, Campus Ministry's role is to weave into every aspect of school life.

There are a number of different ways students, faculty, staff and alumni can participate in the spiritual life of our school. First and foremost are through participation in the sacraments. The entire student body worships together in the old gym at 9:30 a.m. every Thursday morning throughout the school year. The remaining days of the week, mass is offered in the Our Lady of Ephesus Chapel at 7:30 a.m. The sacrament of Reconciliation is made available to our students several times throughout the school year and all students participate in Eucharistic Adoration. There are also numerous private and class masses offered throughout the year in our school chapel. The mass is the heart of our faith and it is celebrated daily at LCC!

All LCC students are required to participate in an annual retreat. Each retreat is planned to meet the needs of our students by grade level. This four-year retreat program builds and culminates with the seniors participating in the 3½ day Kairos Retreat. This retreat gives our seniors an opportunity to experience where Christ is in their lives and where He will be as they venture beyond LCC.

Service is a requirement for all LCC students. For a complete education, one does not simply learn about faith from a book but learns to live it. The goals of the LCC service program include a deepened understanding and experience of the principles of Catholic social teaching, a stronger integration of spirituality into the student's live and broader sense of Christian community.

We know that it is important to feel a sense of ownership in your faith, regardless of your religious affiliation, and we strive to make students of all faiths feel welcome here. The doors of the Campus Ministry office are always open and it's not unusual to see groups of students studying, hanging out or just stopping by for a chat. Everyday we strive to fully live LCC's mission and core values.

DIRECTOR OF ENROLLMENT

I am excited to be back at my alma mater giving new students the opportunity to receive an excellent education just like I did. It is our mission to provide students with the best and most faith-filled education we can provide. Part of that means tailoring four years of classes, clubs, and other extracurricular activities that challenge each student to the best of their ability. In order to make such informed decisions we have altered the application process to give us a larger picture, starting with the incoming freshmen for the 2016-17 school year. A student's application consists of an interview, essay and teacher recommendation. Taken together, this information allows us to learn about them as not only a student, but a person. No one piece of the application carries more weight than any other. The applicant's file is reviewed by the entire Admissions Committee. In addition to looking for a strong academic fit between the student and Lima Central Catholic, the Admissions Committee pays special attention to each student's faith and willingness to contribute and grow. Our goal is to optimize our understanding of each student as an individual in order to make the most of their four years with us.

Lima Central Catholic has welcomed many students from countries all over the world. Last year, we partnered with ASSE and housed 19 of these wonderful students. We are always looking for dedicated host families to host one of these high school-aged students. If you are able and willing to host a student for 5 or 10 months, please contact Trudy Thompson at tthompson@apps.lcchs.edu

Dear LCC Community,

What a joy it is to be a Catholic priest! It is also a joy to be able to celebrate this great new life with all of you. I am incredibly grateful to have had, and to continue to have, your support and prayers as I begin my priestly ministry. You have been a part of this journey with me since the very first time I was asked to consider becoming a priest in my senior year at LCC. I am a true believer that a priestly vocation begins in the home, but it is fostered, strengthened, and encouraged by a community of believers. I am so very blessed that Lima Central Catholic has provided this for me. So many wonderful teachers, staff, students, principals, priests, and parents who have helped me along the way to becoming a priest have come from this LCC community. What a blessing and joy it is to know LCC has, and continues to foster, a strong Catholic faith in its students so as to embark on such a journey.

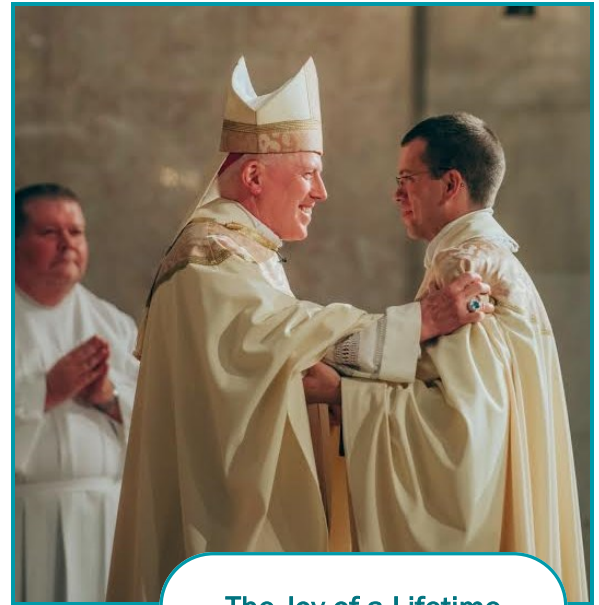

On the day of the ordination, the bishop thanked the many parishes and schools who have helped me and my brother priests prepare for this new life as a priest, so I want to extend my profound thanks to Lima Central Catholic High School. The joy that comes from serving the people of God is nothing short of divine. To do so as an LCC alumnus and now a priest from Lima is also nothing short of divine. Praise God for your commitment to LCC and the untiring zeal and school pride you have shown and lived out to me and to LCC's many students over the years.

The greatest gift we have to share is our Catholic faith and the gift and privilege I have now as a priest is to do that with everyone I meet and have the opportunity to serve. It is the joy of a lifetime and may it be your joy, too!

For the summer, I will be serving at Regina Coeli Parish in north Toledo. Please know that you are always welcome to visit. At the end of the summer, I will return to Rome to complete my license in sacred theology (STL) with a concentration in fundamental theology at the Pontifical Gregorian University. Once that is complete, I will return to the Diocese of Toledo to begin parish ministry next summer.

Please know of my prayers for you and may I ask that you continue to keep me in prayer, so that I may serve humbly and faithfully the people of God and what is for me the joy of a lifetime.

In gratitude,
Fr. David D. Kidd (Class of 2005)

The Joy of a Lifetime

Eighth Bishop of Toledo welcoming Fr. David Kidd to the priesthood.

Fr. Kidd giving a blessing to Jeremy '04 & Katie Fisher '05 Krieg

"As parents we are happy for Fr. David and the wonderful gift of the priesthood he has been given. We wish him well as he embarks on his vocation to teach and guide God's people through the Holy Mass, sacraments, education and everyday living. Having an open heart to receive God's love and plan for us has been an important part of our lives and through this ever enriching experience, we hope that others contemplate service to the church through the priesthood or religious life."

Planned Giving & Your Legacy

Since 1956, Lima Central Catholic has provided students with the tradition of a strong education. Your Planned Gift will help us continue our Legacy of Academic Excellence & you will become a member of “The Diamond Thunderbird Circle”.

For more information contact: Walt Klimaski, LCC President wklimaski@apps.lchs.edu or 419-222-4276

At Lima Central Catholic we recognize the importance of Planned Giving as part of development. Our LCC Educational Foundation is making a concerted effort to focus on Planned Giving to insure a successful future for our school.

Often we assume that it requires a lot of money to make a planned gift. In truth someone of average means can comfortably make a lasting gift to LCC. Consider a bequest through a will, a stock transfer, life insurance policy or scholarship. There are many ways to leave your legacy that will help support the school for years to come and provide you with great tax benefits now.

A BEQUEST IN YOUR WILL

This is the simplest way to give a gift of cash or other property from your estate just by naming LCC in your will.

GIFTS OF INSURANCE

An insurance policy you already own or one you purchase to give, allows you to make a larger gift than you might otherwise be able to make. Premiums paid are tax deductible by you.

MEMORIAL GIFTS

Create a lasting tribute to the memory of someone special or show appreciation to a living family member or friend.

OTHER PLANNED GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Gifts of cash, securities, stock or some form of trust arrangement .

*Your planned gift will be invested in the LCC Educational Foundation so that future generations of students will have access to the academic excellence that LCC provides. As a member of the “Diamond Thunderbird Circle” your name will be added to the large plaque that hangs in the lobby of the Msgr.

E. C. Herr Gymnasium.

The LCC Educational Foundation was founded in 1982 and over the years has provided more than $5,000,000 in financial assistance to students.

Prayer for the deceased is one of the greatest acts of charity we can perform.
