Chapter Officer Code of Conduct:

As a leader in this chapter, it is important you know in detail what leadership is because it contains many different aspects. As a chapter leader, you are not only an individual but also a key component of a team. It is very critical that you remember this during the year. Leadership involves hard work, discipline, and respect of others. As a chapter leader, you leadership carries beyond the walls of the agriculture classroom, outside the FFA Chapter, and into the rest of the school and in your lives. You are to be courteous to others and respectful of their opinions and ideas. You must be more concerned with the goals and desires of the team than your own personal agenda.

You must agree to the following conditions stated below by initialing in the blank:

_____ I will have an FFA Jacket, tie/scarf, and complete official dress for official FFA activities.

_____ I will schedule and attend an executive leadership committee meeting before school at least once a month.

_____ I will be able to meet outside of class time (before school and evenings) to prepare for chapter meetings, prepare for CDE's, and plan for activities.

_____ I will abide by the FFA code of ethics. (See attached code of ethics)

_____ I will or have already enrolled in an Agricultural education course for the upcoming 2020-2021 school year.

_____ I understand that being an officer requires a certain amount of additional expenses for the chapter and I will contribute and show leadership in the chapter fundraising efforts. (work at least 15 hours in concession stands, and assist in other fundraising efforts.)

_____ Once elected, I will schedule and attend an chapter officer retreat with my fellow officers for leadership development and planning during the summer. (Pending state guidelines)

_____ I will promote myself, the FFA chapter, and my high school in a positive manner and will work with my fellow chapter leaders to conduct a challenging plan of chapter activities for the FFA members.

_____ I will pull my weight in my academic course load in order to be eligible to travel with the chapter.

_____ I understand that if I carry inappropriate substances in school, on trips, or with the chapter that I will be removed from my leadership position. I understand that to be a leader in the community, it involves a certain set of standards and if I do not follow those standards (i.e. being a discipline problem in the classroom, breaking the law, driving under the influence etc.) I can be removed from my position.
