Responsible

Student of the Month

6th Grade Student of the Month

Kira Whitmore

Kira is a student in one of my classes that completely projects the pillar of responsibility. For this quarter (and for the previously ones) Kira has not missed one assignment! This quarter every assignment has been completed and every one has earned the grade of an A. I can always depend on Kira to help other students after she has completed her work or to take on any responsibility that I ask of her. Kira is the type of student that shows what it means to be a Rickover Scholar.

7th Grade Student of the Month

Araye Jackson

Araye makes a good choice for "Student of the Month" because she has been notorious for making good sound decisions with classmates and adults. She shows up on time and prepares everyday for class. She is an avid participator in class discussions and she brings rich dialogue during our meetings. She shows compassion by always being available to help and assist in any way she can. I've lost count of how many gift cards she has earned for being "Scholar of the Week". I believe Araye would be a GREAT choice for this month awardee.

8th Grade Student of the Month

Darius Meeks

Teacher 1

Darius is always prepared, present, and ready for class. He is a very helpful young man especially when his peers are struggling in one area or another. He shares his dedication with his peers in how he presents himself and how he completes tasks. During recent discussions about personal responsibility he shared his desire to help others take an increased value of their actions. Looking at how you act and treat others will greatly influence how you are also treated.

Teacher 2

Darius works hard to complete his work. He is always happy to support others and their learning. Additionally, Darius takes ownership of his learning.

Congratulations
