IMPORTANT NOTES:

- There must be perfect attendance for the graduation rehearsal on Wednesday, May 26th beginning at 12:30 PM. ALL graduating seniors must attend this rehearsal. Please bring your cap and gown.
- Hicks Studio will be taking pictures at graduation. You can view and order the pictures on their website. <https://hicksstudios.com/>
- Each senior will receive 4 tickets for the graduation ceremony on Thursday, May 27th. The tickets will be distributed to each senior no more than one week before graduation in the office.
- On the evening of graduation, ALL graduating Seniors must report to the High School cafeteria by 6:15 p.m. An index card will be provided to you and you will write your first and last name on the card with the phonetic spelling. This will be handed to the announcer to be read out loud when presented your diploma cover.
- Leading the class for the processional will be the Valedictorian, Salutatorian, class officers, and the top ten academic students. They will be followed by the graduating members of the National Honor Society. Students will walk in pairs and sit on their respective side of the seating arrangement.

All plans are subject to change based on Michigan Department of Health and Human Services orders or otherwise.
