Parents/Guardians of Parkway Elementary School are encouraged to take an active role in the education of their children and shall be encourage to become involved in the education programs of the building through the means listed below:

The building principal and staff will:

1. Encourage strong home-school partnerships;
2. Provide for consistent and effective communication with parents/guardians;
3. Offer parents/guardians ways to assist and encourage their children to do their best;
4. Offer ways for parents/guardians to support classroom learning activities;
5. Provide opportunities for parents/guardians to be involved in parent involvement programs.

There will be communication between the school and parents on an ongoing basis, so that the school and parents can work together to benefit the children. Information related to school policies, meetings, parent programs and other activities will be sent home to parents in a timely manner.

The school promises to provide high quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective environment, assistant to parents in understanding the state's academic achievement and assessment standards, material and training to help parents work with their children to improve their children’s achievement, frequent reports to parents on their children’s progress, parent-teacher conferences, reasonable access to staff, and an annual meeting with parents.

Parents will support their children's learning by encouraging their children to do their best and monitoring attendance and homework completion, making sure all necessary paperwork is signed and returned. Parents are encouraged to volunteer in their children’s classrooms and are encouraged to participate in the parent-teacher organization.

In forming this partnership, we believe we can best meet the needs of our child for student success and continued achievement.

Teachers and Parents Serving Children Together