

Please join us on Saturday, March 27th @ 1:00 p.m. as we get to celebrate the recognition of Mrs. Kelly Hoelting as a nominee for the 2022 Kansas Teacher of Year.

Mrs. Hoelting is currently in her twentieth year as an Agriculture Education Instructor at USD 330 Mission Valley. Mrs. Hoelting currently teaches students in grades 8-12 in a wide range of agricultural courses and is also the FFA advisor, as well as a sponsor for the National Honor Society organization. During her time at Mission Valley, she has served on numerous school committees and leadership teams both at the building and district level.

Mrs. Hoelting received her Bachelor of Science degree in Agricultural Education in 2001 from Kansas State University, her Masters of Science in Curriculum and Instruction from Kansas State University in 2005, and is currently working to obtain her Doctorate in Philosophy (PhD) in Curriculum and Instruction from Kansas State University.

In addition to her duties at Mission Valley and completing her doctorate degree, Mrs. Hoelting has been a cooperating teacher for seven student teaching interns and has spent 15 years as mentor for 1st year agricultural education teachers in Kansas, and serves as professional development educators for KSU Block II agriculture education students. She serves on the KSU Ag Education advisory committee, and as a trustee on the Kansas FFA Foundation board. Mrs. Hoelting is also a member of the Kansas Continuous Learning Task Force, the Kansas Navigating Change Task Force, and the Kansas Public Broadcast System (PBS) Task Force.

Mrs. Hoelting's accomplishments include: Kansas Association of Agricultural Education Teacher of the Year, Kansas Association of Career & Technical Educators Teacher of the Year, and winner of the ACTE Region V Carl Perkins Community Services Award. She has also provided leadership to students in receiving awards such as: Kansas Star Farmer, multiple National Proficiency Finalist, 3-Star National FFA Chapter, and has led students in competition in various leadership & career development events at the national level.

Mrs. Hoelting and her husband Mark have three sons (Conner, Keegan, Riley) who also attend USD 330 Mission Valley.
