This Friday, July 21 beginning at 9:30 AM, please join Colorado Attorney General Phil Weiser for a conversation about priorities and topics impacting families and communities in Southeastern Colorado. The Attorney General, along with members of his community engagement team, hopes to hear from participants about timely local priorities, community projects, challenges, and opportunities on topics ranging from public safety, youth mental health, natural resources and conservation, consumer protection, and more. Attorney General Weiser will also provide updates from his office on topics of interest to participants.
