

Demarius Lives Scholarship

In Memory of Demaris Amari Cox

The “Demarius Lives” Scholarship Fund was established to honor the life and memory of Demarius Amari Cox, a beloved member of the Hillsboro community and student at Hillsboro High School. A young man of deep character and faith, his life continues to impact his community.

The scholarship fund will provide financial assistance to graduates of Hillsboro High School. Current graduating seniors are eligible. The scholarship is based primarily on character.

All donations benefit the Demarius Lives scholarship Fund.

For more information contact the Hillsboro Community Foundation director or any of the board members.
