Special Education Parent Advisory Council

Are you interested in joining the Special Education Parent Advisory Council? To learn more about the SEPAC, purpose, and leadership positions - please join us.
Election of officers will take place in May.

Monday, April 26
6-7PM
Virtual Meeting

The Special Education Parent Advisory Council is open to parents of children with disabilities as well as other interested parties.

The mission of the BMRSD Special Education Parent Advisory Council is to work for the understanding of, respect for, and support of all children with special needs in the community.

The SEPAC advises the District regarding the education and safety of student with disabilities and meets regularly with school officials to discuss planning, development, and evaluation of the District's special education programs.

If interested in attending, please email Jennifer Hernandez at jhernandez@bmrdsd.net or contact Jennifer in the Learner Support Services Office at 508-876-0142
