It's time to walk the plank!

For the Middle School Drama Presents: "It's a Pirates Life for me!"

March 21st, 22nd, 23rd 7:30 pm

Presented By THE
LYME SCHOOL
DRAMA PROGRAM

"Get your peg leg tappin' to this eclectic score of rollicking sea shanties and contemporary styles — a surefire audience-pleaser! Aristocrat Roger Goodman has his heart set on a conventional life married to the wealthy Sarah Huffington and living happily ever after. That is, until he finds out she thinks he's boring and would rather marry a brave and adventurous pirate! Determined to prove himself to his beloved, Roger hires Long John Sliver to tutor him and his newly recruited motley crew in the field of piracy. In exchange for his total pirate makeover (which includes the fearsome new name, Captain Blood!), Roger and his crew sail to Treasure Island seeking the chests of gold doubloons Long John buried there long ago."

Director's Reminders:

We are all familiar with the no cell phone rule in movies and the performances. In addition please be aware of the following:

The doors open no earlier than 7:00 pm, there are no reserve seats, and the play will begin promptly at 7:30 pm.

Please remain quietly in your seats during the performance and assist the younger audience members to do so as well.

INK Spot

Imagination and Knowledge

Drama Life

Alina, grade 7: I like being busy, so as a stage manager, I enjoy all the work to be done behind the scenes and the activity of putting on a performance.

Sivi, grade 7: I am not much of a dancer but, Mrs. Frawley, makes it really fun with her energy and enthusiasm!

Third Grade Joins the Pack

The Breaburn dog sled team visited the third grade as part of a writing and literacy unit in which the Iditarod was the theme. The team comes from Windsor, Vermont and is one of several in the area.
