No School Tomorrow (Friday)

I guess I just didn't want to go a day without seeing your kids, which is why I forgot to mention in lunch menu that we don't have school tomorrow. So please take note that tomorrow (Friday, September 4th) we do not have school. Teachers will be here working on the next stages of our curriculum and we hope that you all have a great longer Labor Day weekend. See you back on Tuesday.

Superheroes Smash World Record

As a result of the Herculean (despite the fact he is not a superhero) effort of many, and in particular Nini Meyer and Dan Lynch, 1016 superheroes gathered after CHaD's "Cam's Course" to shatter the world record for "Superheroes Gathered in One Place". The previous record, a paltry 553, had no chance against the power of the Upper Valley. Superheroes of all sorts were seen including Green Lantern, Batman/woman, Superman/woman/dog and even Captain Underpants (Photo excluded to protect the innocent). When asked about the chances of breaking the record next year, Nini Meyer was heard shouting "to infinity and beyond!". I am not sure there is enough spandex, however. Thanks to everyone for coming out to support the cause.
