

Development and Review of Administrative Regulations

The District Superintendent or designee shall be responsible for the development, adoption, distribution and review of administrative regulations. Administrative regulations are the detailed arrangements governing the operation of the BOCES. Such regulations shall be consistent with federal and state laws and regulations, Board policies and labor agreements.

Employees of the BOCES shall follow all administrative regulations. The District Superintendent shall be responsible for interpreting the administrative regulations.

Approved: March 18, 1998