

GARY VAN DER GEEST MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Gary Van Der Geest Memorial Scholarships are being offered to two graduating seniors planning on attending an accredited college, university, or technical school. The scholarship awards are $1000 each and will be given to individuals planning on pursuing a career in an agricultural or animal related field.

The Scholarship will be based on the desire, interest, and aptitude of the student to pursue and excel in an agriculture or animal related field.

To be eligible, the student must demonstrate an interest in an agricultural/animal field by having or have had a membership in FFA, 4-H, Rodeo, Horse Club or related agricultural organization.

The Scholarship will be distributed after the student has successfully completed his or her 1st semester and provides proof of being enrolled in the 2nd semester. The Scholarships will be presented at the Wisconsin River Pro Rodeo in Merrill WI, June 9th, 10th, or 11th. You will be contacted as to the date and time of the presentation. If you are chosen, we ask that you be present to receive the scholarship.

Seniors graduating from the following area
High schools are eligible:
Merrill, Wausau East & West, Edgar, Athens, and Marathon
High Schools.

Please send your completed application to:
