

PTO Minutes Sept. 20, 2016

Meeting was called to order by Bryan Casey at 5:30 in the ASBVI cafeteria. We welcomed Millie Nordman back from her time in the Middle East.

Car Show updates

We have 75 cars so far. Order forms for tshirts went home. The car show has been put out on Facebook. Alyssa worked on obtaining a raffle permit and is awaiting a final email from the DFA.

We need help with parking at the Car Show on Sept. 24th. (The Masons are no longer helping.) Mr. Rice asked about parking next to football field at the School for the deaf will find out if it is ok. Security car needs to be moved. Participants are to register as soon as they get here.

Ms. Randall made cars and art in art classes. We have been digging through closets and found a banner for the car show. Mr. Rice will be here morning at 5:30 to 6:00. Needs signs, no silent auction, and 1 to 2 dollars max on art. Registration trailers parked back by gym.

Responsibilities

Alyssa Rasnick is in charge of T-shirts, registration and art.

Mrs. Casey is in charge of concessions and Mr. Casey is in charge of the DJ. Our DJ has a list of appropriate music.

Mr. Rasnick is picking up food. T-shirts are 15 dollars. There will be a raffle wheel.

We need to cater to the car show people.

Andrew Bullinger's mom is in charge of face painting.

*We use to have to many people sign up; now we can't get enough.

Mr. Rice talked about the operating cost being about 2,000 dollars.

Donations/Sponsorships

*The Roe Family donated to Razorback football tickets and a pair of fancy sunglasses.

*River Valley Horticulture is donating mulch.

*Thanks to individuals who volunteered for contacting the media houses at the previous meeting.

*Bryan/Tammy Casey donated a tool chest from Home Depot to be raffled off.

*DJ Joe White is also donating his time.

*We have sixty dollars in food donated. We are lacking condiments; hot dog warmers

Upcoming news

We ended with talking about the pie auction, and a rummage sale. The Pie Auction will be at the May concert. April 1st is a date for a possible garage/rummage sale. We need to have a revolving door secretary. Elizabeth Roe took notes last meeting. October 20th will be the next meeting. Ms. Jones gave principal report. Lori Cole talked about family fest. As per Alyssa, PTO scholarships were given to Dominique and Kylon in the mail and personally delivered, respectively.

Meeting was adjourned at 6:30 pm.
