

Character Development

Six Pillars of Character

Sunset School Creed:

I pledge...

To be a Kid of Character

I'll be worthy of TRUST

I'll be RESPECTFUL and RESPONSIBLE,

Doing what I must.

I will always act with FAIRNESS,

I will show that I CARE.

I will be a good CITIZEN,

And always do my share

Students, parents, and staff all share responsibility for student learning. By agreeing to this compact of shared responsibilities, we understand how everyone contributes to student success, and we agree to collaboratively support the students of Sunset and the Cody community.

Vision

Students achieve excellence with the skills, knowledge, and strength of character to succeed in a dynamic world.

Mission

All students learn at high levels through work that is purposefully designed to be relevant and engaging within a supportive environment.

School Improvement

Goals:

*All students will demonstrate growth towards proficiency in English Language Arts.

*All students will demonstrate growth towards proficiency in math.

School Responsibilities

As a school, we will:

- Provide high-quality curriculum, instruction, and necessary interventions.
- Provide conference times at least twice per year at a mutually agreeable time.
- Be accessible to parents and respond in a timely manner during normal school hours.
- Maintain high standards and clear expectations for students and staff.
- Communicate with families effectively through one or more of the following: newsletters, email, websites, school Facebook, and automated phone messages.
- Maintain ongoing data to effectively design instruction
- Model positive behavior and healthy choices.
- Report behavioral and academic progress at scheduled intervals or when necessary.

Family Responsibilities

As a Family, we will:

- Make sure our child is here by 8:10 am.
- Ensure our child is prepared for learning by making sure they receive adequate sleep and proper nutrition.
- Keep current with school communication including checking backpacks daily for information and returning forms in a timely manner.
- Attend family/teacher conferences.
- Update the school's emergency contact information as soon as changes occur including address, phone, email, and special health conditions or needs.
- Encourage learning by providing a regular time and place for homework and involving students in home activities that foster learning.
- Model and promote the six pillars of character listed in the school creed on the reverse side.
- Attend Family Night Activities and Title I Parent Meetings.

Student Responsibilities

As a student, I will:

- Come to school on time and prepared to learn
- Bring homework back to school completed and on time.
- Listen and do my best with a positive attitude.
- Take care of myself, be a role model, and work as a team.
- Be a Kid of Character.
- Come to school in proper attire and safe footwear to participate in daily recess and P.E.
- Share communication and school forms with my family and return any needed forms to school.
- Talk to a trusted adult if I am aware of any unsafe behavior or bullying.
- Take care of school property and return library books on time.
- Be supportive and inclusive with all students.
