

English Department
Summer Reading
Dialectical Journal

Clap When You Land by Elizabeth Acevedo

Directions:

- Make a copy of this document and transcribe SIX quotes that reflect the beginning, middle, and end of the novel
- Include two quotes from the first third of the book (pages 1-139), two quotes from the middle third (140-279), and two quotes from the final third (pages 280-417).
- Respond to your quotes in the double-entry journal below.

In the right column, write a response to the text, using any of these modes of thinking:

- Ideas/Insights: “Aha!” moments (realizations or new grasps of foreign cultures, gender stereotypes, etc.)
- Questions: essential questions (big ideas about the human condition) or researchable
- Reflections: aspects of the story that make you think about yourself
- Connections: text-to-self, text-to-text, text-to-world

[illegible]