Superintendent of Schools

~ Our mission is to challenge individuals to reach their potential in an educational environment that promotes excellence ~

The Stoughton School Committee seeks a dynamic educational leader with excellent communication skills, a strong background in improving student performance, and experience with budget development and long range planning as the next Superintendent of Schools. Stoughton is a residential community seventeen miles southwest of Boston. Stoughton town meeting members have consistently supported funding for the schools, the elderly, and public safety. Stoughton is very proud of the recent completion of the high school building project. Our brand new state of the art high school opened in 2019. The school system is recognized for its commitment to diversity, academic excellence and use of technology.

Start date: September 1, 2021
