A. Here is an image of the back of the most current unit we have, the number is 82CE0000US

Q. For warranty on chromebook, does it need to be a Lenovo warranty?

A. It does not, you can offer third party maintenance that would cover accidental damage, theft, water damage, fire.

Q. Are you aware that Lenovo products may have an extra timeline to ship due to issues getting product in to the USA at this time?

A. These chromebooks are not necessary for us to start school in September we do want to know a rough timeline however we are all well aware of the delays in transit.

Q. Do you want a case for laptops?

A. Not necessary

Q. Do you want a warranty upgrade for laptops?

A. Not necessary

Q. Any implementation or white glove services needed?

A. In order to do a fair comparison please quote only the items listed. White glove service could be added as an additional option if we choose.
