esc6
Dedicated to Serve

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

Special Education Reading Specialist

Job Goal: The Special Education Reading Specialist will assist districts and parents with professional development, technical assistance, resources and TEA updates in the identification and services for students with reading disorders/dyslexia.

Qualifications

- Master's Degree in Reading and/or Reading Disorders
- Valid Texas Teachers' Certification
- Licensed as a Reading/Dyslexia Therapist
- 1400 Hours of Clinical teaching experience
- Completed a 2 year course in administration & supervision of multi-sensory structured language education programs
- Minimum of five years recent experience in field of reading disorders/dyslexia.

Special Knowledge & Skills

- High degree of professionalism including strong public relations skills
- Ability to establish rapport and work in collaboration with LEAs and ESC personnel
- Ability to establish rapport and work in collaboration with parents of students with reading disorders
- Presentation skills; ability to provide professional development to educators
- Ability to work on multiple tasks with minimal supervision
- Ability to use technology effectively
- Willingness to travel

Major Responsibilities

- Respond to clients' needs in a courteous and timely manner with current, accurate information.
- Provide technical assistance and professional development as required by TEA in reading disorders/dyslexia.
- Provide technical assistance and professional development to meet the needs of LEAs.
- Provide technical assistance and professional development to meet the needs of parents with children with reading disorders/dyslexia.
- Provide TEA updates on information pertaining to reading disorders/dyslexia.
- Provide resources that are necessary to assist districts with identified students and their parents/guardians.
- Provide districts with information and training on legislation such as House Bill 1886 as well as information in the Texas Education Code on reading disorders/dyslexia.
- Attend relevant meetings, conferences, and professional development.
- Perform other duties as may be assigned.

Terms of Employment

$44,219-$77,632 based on experience

Application Details

Please complete an online application at www.esc6.net.
Contact: Bonney Monjaras -936.435.8284 or bmonjaras@esc6.net