

Native and need help paying for school?

The Native American Career and Technical Education Program (NACTEP) is a program aiming to reduce barriers to education with Native American students enrolled in technical education programs.

Servicing Gordon Cooper Technology Center, Metro Technology Center, and Moore Norman Technology Center

APPLY FOR BIWEEKLY STIPENDS

plus help with the enrollment process, tuition costs, classes on interviewing, career and education mapping, and more!

Eligible majors include: aircraft mechanics and service technicians, radiologic technologies, heat and air, refrigeration, machinists, computer user support specialists, physical therapy assistants, LPN, and more.

MUST MEET CERTAIN CRITERIA TO QUALIFY

FIND OUT MORE!

Contact Nicole Byrd at 405-878-3854
or Nicole.byrd@potawatomi.org

Citizen Potawatomi Nation Workforce & Social Services